The agricultural department of the Allegany County Extension Service will launch its annual membership drive at a meeting at 8 p. m. this Thursday at the Presbyterian Parish House in Belmont. Carroll Burdick of Andover, chairman of the agricultural executive committee, will be leader of the meeting. He will also show slides depicting the growing antique hobby. The membership 1964 goal is 1,200. The campaign will continue until Nov. 21.

Michael Dugan 11, and Patrick Dugan 8, sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Dugan, formerly of Andover, now residing at Lime Lake, won first prize "jackets" in punt pass and kick football contest, sponsored by Franklinville Ford Company. These winners are the grandsons of Mrs. Leah Greene, Center St., paternal grandmother and Mr. and Mrs. Michael V. Lynch, E. Greenwood St., maternal grandparents.

Allegany County Boy Scouts met Saturday, October 23, at the farm of Robert McNich, Belmont, N. Y. Mr. McNich is a former Eagle Scout and in 1961 was named Allegany County Conservation Farmer of the Year. The boys saw many parts of Mr. McNich's conservation plan including diversion ditches, strip cropping, wildlife areas, timber improvement and tree planting. The boys obtained knowledge of how these practices prevent soil and water losses from our hill lands.
