Alton York was thrown from a stone crusher last Friday when the shovel swung around unexpectedly. He works with a crew on the County roads. He struck on his head, receiving deep cuts and bruises. He was taken by ambulance to the St. James Mercy Hospital where he was a patient until Wednesday for treatment and X-rays. He will return for more X-rays of his back.

There will be a meeting of the Dairymen's League Sub-District at the Methodist Social Hall Tuesday, December 3. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Woodwork, local delegates, are hosts for the meeting. Dinner will be served at 12:30 by the WSCS of the Church with Mrs. Clarence Stephens chairman.

Francis Acker was retired from the County Highway November 30 by age requirement. He had been employed for the County for 7 years, beginning in August 1956 and for the last two years was boss of his road crew. Alton York will become head of the crew in place of Mr. Acker. The Ackers moved to Greenwood seven years ago in December and have been active in the Methodist Church. Mrs. Acker died in June 1961. He has three daughters and two sons and expects to see more of his children and grandchildren now. He came here from Hartsville, where he had been a farmer and had served as Assessor and Supervisor of the town. He is well known in the County in Grange and Conservation work.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Woodward were hosts last Sunday for about 25 of her family. The occasion was a farewell in honor of her brother, Louis Pulkowsky of Hornell, who entered the Armed Service Tuesday.

Welfare Officer, P. E. Berger announced that the Surplus Food will be distributed this Thursday, December 5th from 11 to 2 p.m.

Scouts of Troop 62 held their monthly camp out at the Winter

Lodge at Camp Gorton on Waneta Lake November 23 - 24. The Campfire Ceremony Saturday night was conducted by John Murray. -Worship Service Sunday morning was given by Edward Mullen. The Scouts are selling Christmas Trees for a money raising project. A Court-of-Honor will be held at the Methodist Social Hall December 18 when Merit Badges and Awards will be presented. A Roundtable for Adult Leaders of the Western District was held at Greenwood Central School November 19. At this time Skip Mullen passed an Eagle Character Court to attain the rank of Eagle Scout. Plans are to present the Eagle Award to Skip during Scout Week in February. John Hunt, Cub Master, called a Cub Pack Meeting Tuesday, December 3, at the Methodist Hall.

Nineteen women attended the November meeting of the WSCS at the Methodist Church. Mrs. Robert Myers gave a Thanksgiving Meditation from Psalm 107. Mrs. Robert Lamphier brought a story of a woman who didn't think much of giving generously to missions until she had a dream and was shown all the help being given to women in other lands. Miss Grace Young conducted a short business meeting appointing a committee to send Christmas Boxes to service men. Names of Missionaries were given out to send Christmas cards and letters. Members are to bring supplies to the meeting December 19th to pack Christmas Cheer Boxes. Mrs. Howard Lamphier gave a report about one of our home missionary projects. Following the meeting a baby shower was given for Mrs. Ronald Nearpass. Refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Albert Lamphier and Mrs. Virgil Hussey.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Nearpass are the parents of a son, Scott, born at the St. James Mercy Hospital Sunday, November 24. His parents of Geneva, R.D., came Saturday, and took Lisa and Laurie Nearpass to spend a week with their grandparents.

College students home for the Thanksgiving Holidays included: Miss Betty Pease, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pease; Miss Phyllis Leonard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Leonard from Geneseo State Teachers College for a week; Miss Barbara Lamphier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lamphier and Miss Elsie Koehler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Koehler from Fredonia State College for a week; Miss Cheryl Hussey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hussey from Houghton College, Wednesday to Friday. She brought a girl friend home and went with her for the week-end. Miss Betty York, from Galedia College at Washington, D. C., flew to Rochester Wednesday. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton York went to meet her and brought her sister, Miss Judy York home from the Rochester School for the Deaf; Miss Donna Mullen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mullen from Alfred Ag-Tech and Wayne Warriner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Warriner, Sr., from Cornell University.
