The members of the Entrenous Club met at the home of Mrs. William Joyce Thursday evening for a 7:30 bridge dessert, followed by bridge. Honors were presented to Mrs. Anna Richardson and Mrs. Harriet Hoover.

Thanks to John Howland for decorating the Post Tree, corner of North Main and Water Street.

Robert H. White, 17, of Greenwood, R.D., 1 was reported in satisfactory condition at the St. James Mercy Hospital where he was admitted Sunday with neck injuries he received from a 20-gauge shotgun which was discharged by a 13-year old cousin. The youngster, not knowing that the gun was loaded, held it up and pulled the trigger, the deputy said. The slug grazed White's throat.

Howard Burdick of Andover was remained secretary of the Metropolitan Cooperative Milk Producers Bargaining Agency at a meeting Thursday night at Syracuse which saw all major officials reelected for another term.

Stern warning to parents from Belmont Police Chief Eugene Wigent was published in this week's Dispatch. Telling parents to control their teenagers at risk of finding themselves in trouble, the chief commented: "It is too bad even the Yuletide lights — have to be padlocked or they turn them on at any time." The time for Halloween pranks is over, and someone may get hurt, the chief pointed out.

The Rev. William J. Semple, who has served the First Presbyterian Church in Canisteo for more than 19 years, has accepted a call to become pastor of the Presbyterian Churches in Hammondsport and Pulteney. The congregation of the local church voted to accept his resignation with regret following the worship service Sunday. The request now goes to the Presbytery of Steuben-Elmira to dissolve the pastoral relationship in Canisteo. This action is expected to be completed at a special meeting scheduled for Dec. 30. The Semples expect to move on or about January 15th.

At the annual meeting of the Allegany County Agricultural Society last week at the office of L. L. Stillwell in Angelica, Gordon Payne of Andover and Alton Dunlap of Cuba replaced each other in the offices of president and vice president respectively. George Derx accepted the position as secretary, previously held by Mr. Stillwell who will act as treasurer. Dates for the 1964 Allegany County Fair were designated as August 4-8.

Citizens and officials of Wellsville have ended the search for a suitable refuse site. The Village Board has purchased 60 acres of land in Duffy Hollow which is secluded and easily reached, making for a sanitary landfill for Wellsville residents. The new location is expected to replace the present dump on E. State St., which has been condemned by the State for years.
