

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

Twenty youth of the Methodist Junior Youth Fellowship met at the Church Hall Monday night for a Christmas Party. Mrs. Geraldine Lamphier and Mrs. Jennie White led in games. Refreshments were served by Youth Church School Teachers, Mrs. Freda Stephens and Mrs. Marjorie Lamphier.

Thirty seven children of the Primary Classes of the Methodist Church School held a Christmas Party at the Church Tuesday afternoon. Teachers, Jeanne Fisher, Grace Young and Virginia York supervised games. Refreshments were served by Geraldine Lamphier, Ann Stephens and Marjorie Gratto.

Ten members of the Women's Society of Christian Service attended the December meeting at the Church Thursday afternoon. The ladies packed 14 boxes for the shut-ins. The boxes were delivered Saturday night, when Walter Jackson and his high school class went carolling. Mrs. Howard Lamphier gave the devotions on, "If I had been in Bethlehem." Several members read scripture selections.

Children through the Eighth Grade presented the Christmas program at the Methodist Church Sunday evening directed by chairman Geraldine Lamphier. Recitations of welcome were given by the Kindergarten Class and Prayers by First and Second Graders. The older groups acted the Christmas Story and sang the carols.

State Deputy Howard DeMunn and State Juvenile Deputy Mrs. DeMunn of Troupsburg made their official visitation at the December meeting of the Greenwood Grange. Mr. Walter Emo, a member of the Executive Committee of Pomona Grange was also an honored guest. The meeting was conducted by Worthy Master, Mrs. Louise Smith. Lecturer, Geraldine Lamphier, presented a program entitled "Christmas Around the World". She also presented the guests gifts from the Grange.

The Charter was draped in memory of our late President, John F. Kennedy. The Service and Hospitality Committee held the Coffee Cake Contest. Mrs. Lillian Spencer received first prize from Judges: Daisy Teribury and Shirley Cook. Following the meeting refreshments were served. Members delivered a Poinsettia plant to a shut-in member, Mrs. John Rogers.

Francis Acker spent last weekend with his daughter and family, Rev. and Mrs. David Knickerbocker and sons at Bradford, N. Y. and attended the Christmas program at the Baptist Church Sunday evening. His grandsons were taking part.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hale and his mother, Mrs. A. dje Hale were in Lyonia last Sunday guests of her sister for a family Christmas gathering.

Jefferson Brewster, student at Nyack College is spending Christmas vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Brewster of West Greenwood.

Kenneth Koehler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Koehler of West Greenwood is home from the Williamsport Technical School for Christmas.

James Tracy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Asel Tracy of Rexville, arrived home Friday from Kentucky for leave until December 31st.

Miss Marie Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Campbell is home for the holidays from the Bob Jones University at Greenville, S. C.

Miss Linda Bassett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carol Bassett of the Canisteo Road is home for the holidays from Graceland College at Lamoni, Iowa.

Miss Beverly Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Spencer, fell off her bicycle near home in November and fractured her knee. She was a patient at the St. James Mercy Hospital for a week and had a cast put on.

Mrs. Roy Eldridge and Mrs. Florence Moore were patients at the St. James Mercy Hospital two days last week for check-ups.

Miss Donna Mullen, student at the Ag-Tech of Alfred is spending Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mullen.

Miss Cheryl Hussey, student at Houghton College, arrived home Tuesday, December 17 for the holidays until January 3 with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hussey.

Miss Barbara Lamphier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lamphier of the Canisteo Road, came home Saturday from the State University of Fredonia for two weeks Christmas vacation.

Miss Elsie Koehler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Koehler of West Greenwood, came home Saturday from the State University of Fredonia for the holidays.

Miss Betty Pease, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Pease and Miss Phyllis Leonard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Leonard, both of West Greenwood came home Saturday for a two weeks

Christmas vacation from the State University at Geneseo.

Robert Streeter, student at the University of North Carolina, at Raleigh, N. C., came Friday and Roger Streeter, a student at the Marine Academy at New London, Conn., who flew into Elmira Saturday, are spending Christmas holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Streeter.

Miss Betty York, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton York of West Greenwood, flew to Rochester Friday from Washington, D. C., where she is a student at Gadjudet College. Her parents met her and also brought their other daughter, Miss Judy York, student at Rochester, home for the holidays.

Mrs. Pearl Bassett was a Sunday dinner guest of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mitchell of the Canisteo Road and attended the Christmas Program of the Bennetts Community Sunday School that evening.

Francis Acker was a guest of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Allen at Hartsville Sunday and attended the program of the Community Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Almon Wood of Canisteo, called on his Aunt, Mrs. Anna Wood Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Canty of Belmont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McDonough are spending the winter at Puerto Rico. Their daughter, Miss Catherine Canty, is on the Embassy Ship from Washington, D. C.

Mr. E. M. Pepperman was admitted to Willard State Hospital last Monday.

NEW YEAR WISHES

Each passing year brings greater pride in the pleasant relations we enjoy with our good friends and patrons. Our thanks to all, and best wishes for 1964.

H. H. WILLIAMS CO.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Gladly we greet the arrival of a bright New Year
Warmly we wish for you and yours a full measure of happiness, health and prosperity in the year to come.

Short's Service Station
Herman Wallace, Prop.

Ring in the New Year!

We're ringing in the New Year with hopes that it brings you a full measure of success and happiness.

ZENITH Gerald Mullen
T.V. Service
Andover, N. Y.