SNANYS To Present "Mock Convention"

The Student Nurse's Association of New York State, known as SNANYS, will put on its annual "mock convention" with Doctor Murray Banks as guest speaker, at Alfred University's Alumni Hall on Tuesday, February 11, 1964 at 8:30 p. m.

The guest speaker, the world known clinical psychologist and popular lecturer, Doctor Murray Banks, was formerly a professor of psychology at Long Island Uni-versity, and at Pace College in New York City. He is a graduate of New York and Columbia Uni-versities, and did his clinical psychopathology study at Bellevue Hospital in New York City. His lectures are amusing, exciting, always thought-provoking, and never fail to leave the audience inspired. Doctor Banks' lecture will be entitled "Just In Case You Think You're Normal."

All who are interested are urged to come.

Spring Farm And Home Show Feb. 13-15

Area residents will have a "sneak preview" of spring when GLF service agencies present a special Spring Farm and Home Show in Funcrest Roller Rink in Wellsville on Thursday, Friday and Saturday (Feb. 13-15.)

GLF District Manager Ralph C. Davison of Wellsville, said agencies in the southern tier and northern Pennsylvania are pooling their efforts and resources in order to make the show one of the biggest of its kind ever presented in this area.

Farmers Feed & Supply is one of the GLF service agencies co-operating in the show.

The entire floor space of the rink will be given over to the show, Davison said. Some 50 exhibits of the latest in home and garden, farm and automotive sup-ples will be on display, with spe-cialists on hand to answer ques-tions.

The show will be open to the public but children must be ac-companied by adults. No admis-sion will be charged.

On Thursday the show will be open from noon to 10 p. m.; on Friday from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m.; on Saturday from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Persons attending the show will be eligible for 30 door prizes to be given away. First prize will be a choice of a GLF Union Electric Clothes Dryer or a GLF Unico Portable Dishwasher, valued at about $190.00.

One of the attractions of the show will be a tire-making dem-onstration. Using miniature equip-ment that duplicates the giant machinery used in tire manufac-turing plants, a GLF representa-tive will turn out 8-inch tires, showing visitors the steps taken in actually building a full-scale tire.
