Language is a necessity to every race of man. Nearly 3000 languages are in use today, and many of them have strange customs.

When you meet a friend you usually say "Hello" or "Good Morning", but the Japanese say "Morning Peace". If you were Japanese and you were introduced to someone instead of saying "How do you do", you would probably say, "For the first time I have the honor to your eye".

The Eskimo have no word for war. Since they have always been a peace-loving people, they have had no use for such a word. A strange language custom is a whistling language used in the Canary Islands.

Another might come for the person who can't draw. If you were to learn to write Chinese, you would first learn to draw 200 basic words. Next, you would learn how to combine these basic picture words to make new ones.

The Chinese spoken language is based on pitch. The syllable "ma" said in a high, medium, and low tone is three different words. These are mother, horse and flax.

Although both the Japanese and Chinese written languages are similar, the spoken languages are different. All consonants must be separated by vowels in the Japanese spoken language. Our word "beefsteak" becomes "bifetekeki".

We learn three genders but one of the Bantee languages in Africa has eight genders. These include not only genders for human beings but also for animals and plants and even for round and long objects.

Last Wednesday, January 29, marked a day for Andover Wrestlers to remember. At the start of the meet, the grapplers were ten points down because they didn't have anybody to fill in two weight classes, the 140 lb. class and 167 lb. class.

Andover quickly evened the score through victories by Dan Smith and Dennis Nye. Dennis Nye quick pins on their men, Dan Smith pinning his in 1:22 and Dennis Nye his in 1:07. In the next two matches, the Bolivar Wrestlers took back a ten point lead by pinning Bob Wilson and Doug Nye. In the next match Jim Partridge narrowed the Bolivar's ten point lead to five by pinning his man in one minute and fifteen seconds. Andover took the lead for the first time after the next two matches in which Ray Mead and Gene Raub both pinned their men. The score at this point in the meet, with two matches left, was 25-20 in Andover's favor. In the next match Gail Burdick lost a close one, and was reeisioned 5-4. This made the score 25-23 still in Andover's favor. Harold Fauzey won the next match for Andover by forfeit and made the final score 30-23. Andover had scored its first wrestling victory of this season over Bolivar.

On Friday, January 31, Andover held an Assembly Wrestling Match with Alfred-Almond. The wrestlers received an abundance of support from the student body, the High School, Junior High and Sixth Graders. The Andover grapplers in hopes of winning their second meet but were turned down by Alfred-Almond by a score of 31-18.

Friday, January 31: This marked the date of the Varsity Basketball teams best attempt in seeking their first league win.

At the start of the game Friendship sped off to a ten point lead. However, Andover kept fighting back and narrowed the margin to three by the end of the first quarter. In the second quarter Andover looked better and kept hitting for the baskets. The Andover five was down by three points just before the half. Andover passed the ball in, brought it down, and Norm Alvord shot at the buzzer and made it cutting the Friendship lead to one lone point at the half, 27-26.

In the third quarter the Friendship five out scored the Panthers by six points and increased their lead to seven at the end of the third quarter. Andover had to really fight in the fourth quarter and fight they did. Andover fought their way to within one point behind with one minute to play. Andover got possession of the ball worked it around, and passed underneath to Doug Mulholland, who was almost all by himself, and layed it up to put Andover in the lead by one point. With only fifteen seconds left in the game, Friendship raced the ball toward their basket. After getting the ball to midcourt, Mike Baker was called with changing. This put Friendship on the foul line with a one and one situation. The Friendship player made both foul shots and put Friendship back into the lead with two seconds showing on the clock. Jim Cannon passed the ball in to Dave Thorp. Dave took a long desperate shot that just missed. Andover had lost the game in the last two seconds of play 56-55.

The J.V. game was just about as close. It appeared that the J.V.'s were going to win another, but the Friendship J.V.'s put on a fourth quarter drive to defeat the Andover J.V.'s 49-43. The difference seemed to be in the fourth quarter when Friendship outscored Andover 15-4. Dave Alvord and Dave Vickers were high scorers for Andover with eighteen and eleven respectively.

Coach Overslaugh is giving the boys a physical fitness test for grades 7-12. The test consists of several individual tests: pull ups, push ups, sit ups, 300 yd. run, and squat thrust. The results of these tests will be published in a later edition of the "Purple and White."
