In Memoriam

In loving Memory of Richard Coats who passed away three years ago February 22, 1961:
Time may heal the broken hearted, Years may make the wound less sore,
But it cannot fill the longing For the Loved one gone before.
Who shall say the grief is lessened,
Though the smile may hide the tears,
Memories keep the wound still open
Despite the passing years.
Sadly Missed by

Greenwood Central School News

Susan Edwards, a Junior, has been chosen by James DeMarte, teacher of English, to represent Greenwood Central School in a country wide test, sponsored by the National Council of Teachers of English.

Annually this opportunity is awarded to a Junior.
If she wins, her chance of scholarship will be heightened at many different colleges.

Susan is an honor student and participates in many activities. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Edwards, Andover, R.D. 2.

A busy seven days of scouting in Greenwood ended Tuesday evening when over 120 scouts and parents met in the gymnasium of the local school for the Annual Scout Banquet. The banquet was in celebration of the 29th year of scouting in Greenwood, in recognition of the Cub Pack initiated a year ago, and to honor the establishment of an Explorer Post, also a year ago.

The Cub Pack was presented with an American Flag by Mrs. Dorothy Davis on behalf of the Women's Auxiliary of the VFW of Hornell. The flag was accepted by Cubs Tom York and Steven Hunt. John Hunt, Sr., Cubmaster, expressed appreciation to the auxiliary for the gift.

Two new members into the Cub Pack, Randy Heckman and Michael Fisher, received their official membership certificates and were welcomed to the Pack. The presentation was made by Hunt.

Several awards in scouting were presented by Edward Mullen, Scoutmaster. John Hunt, Jr., and Roger Mills were given the award for year-round camper. Mildred and Jerry Burd were recipients of Scouter of Honor awards. This is an award to adults rendering service to the scout troop.

Mullen also announced the Scout of the Year. The Scout of the Year was chosen from those who had previously earned a Scout of the Month citation. The honor was bestowed upon Roger York, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas York.

Charters for the organizations for the new year were presented. Those taking part were: Fred Kirk, Clair Kernan, Bruce Pritchard, James Shatt. The Explorer Post was recognized regrets expressed on the absence of Hayden Cook, Explorer Advisor, who is convalescing in a hospital.

James Finnessy, of Canisteo, associated with scouting for over 20 years and a past District Scout

Executive, was speaker for the evening. Finnessy spoke of the value in later life of the training the Cubs, Scouts and Explorers were receiving now. He also lauded the scout leaders for their contribution of time and efforts needed to maintain active scout units.

The Invocation and Benediction were offered by Douglas York. The dinner served in buffet style was furnished by parents of the scouts and served by a large number of mothers under the direction of Margaret Murray. Maurice Polts was song leader and Wesley Tennant Master of Ceremonies. Napkin holders for the tables were made by the various dens of the Cubs. Table Decorations were in charge of the Den Mothers.

Appreciation

I wish to take this opportunity to thank my relatives, friends and neighbors for the cards, letters and other remembrances, received during my illness.
