The 80 voice Concert Choir at the State University Agricultural and Technical Institute at Alfred has been selected to sing at New York World's Fair. Assistant Professor Anthony C. Cappadonia, director of the choir, said that his group would sing at New York State Pavilion three times Saturday, May 2nd.

Western New York residents will be able to attend nine county fairs between July 13 and Aug. 30 this year, according to a list released by the New York State Dept. of Agriculture and Markets. Dates of fairs sponsored by the county agricultural societies are: Allegany County in Angelica, Aug. 4-8; Cattaraugus County in Little Valley, Aug. 17-22; Chautauqua County in Dunkirk, July 20-25; Erie County in Hamburg, Aug. 22-29; Genesee County in Batavia, July 13-18; Livingston County in Caledonia, Aug. 11-15; Monroe County in Henrietta, Aug. 18-22; Steuben County in Bath, Aug. 25-30; Wyoming County in Pike, Aug. 24-29.

Mrs. E. J. Allen entertained the members of the Entre Nous Club at a 7:30 bridge dessert at her home on Center St., Thursday evening. Honors were presented to Mrs. F. G. Crawford and Mrs. Flore Lever.

The Annual Legion Birthday Dinner will be observed Saturday, March 7th at 6:30 o'clock at the Legion Home. Members of each organization, their wives and husbands are invited to attend. If you haven't made reservations, please call Hazel Burgett 478-3274 or Teresa McAndrew 478-4175.

Alfred Almond as of now holds the basketball championship of Allegany County for the first time in at least 10 years. The Eagles spurred in the last 4 minutes at Scio to wrap it up with a 62-49 victory. A-A plays in a combined B-C League as the only "B" entry. Scio will take the "C" honors in the same league but A-A is the overall champion. A-A now is 13-3 on the season and plays Bishop Walsh of Olean Saturday on the Alfred-Almond floor. In the Sectionals, A-A will meet Letchworth on March 10 at Wayland in a pre-quarter contest.

Deanna Wittie of Andover has a leading role in the satirical comedy "The Firebugs" which will be presented by the Alfred University Footlight Club in Alumni Hall Alfred, at 8:15 p. m. on March 13 and 14. Miss Wittie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Wittie, plays the role of Mrs. Biederman, whose home is entered by two intruders. A student cast of 11 will present the play under the direction of C. D. Smith, Professor of Speech and Dramatics. Ronald Brown, associate professor of the department is technical director of the production which will be presented as an event of the Cultural Programs Council series. The play was written by Max Frisch, a Swiss dramatist whose work has become well known in Europe. "The Firebugs" was presented off Broadway last year.

Receives Award

David Bennett of Cuba has been selected by the Wellsville Chapter of the Junior Chamber of Commerce as The Outstanding Young Farmer of 1963. Dave received the award at the Jaycees Annual "Bosses Night" dinner in Wellsville January 22.

The OYF purpose is to build better relations between the city dweller and the farmer by increasing urban understanding of the farmer, his life and his problems.

Eligible farmers must be between the ages of 21 and 35 and derive at least two-thirds of his income from farming.

Selection is based on ones degree of progress in his agricultural career, extent of good soil and conservation practices and the significance of contributions to the well being of the community.

The Allegany County SCD extend congratulations to Dave in winning this honor.
