The Grange and Lecturer Miss Catherine Murray presented Mr. and Mrs. DeMunn gifts on behalf of the Grange.

Miss Murray's Lecturer program, a poem, was read by Mrs. John Murray and panel discussion was held on the topic of "Youth and Its Problems". The three problems discussed were:

1. Should youth at the age of 17 be allowed to vote?
2. Should the liquor laws be raised to 21 years of age?
3. Why are boys forced to carry high rates of car insurance up to 25 years of age, while girls don't?

Taking part in the discussion on the youth side were Miss Anna Marie Murray, John Coats and John Murray. On the adult side were Mrs. Anna Mullen, Mrs. Maggie Brewster and Edward Mullen.

State Deputy, Mr. DeMunn gave a short talk and stressed the need to get more members in Grange and complimented the Grange on their new lights and redecorated hall. State Juvenile Deputy Mrs. DeMunn gave a brief talk and remarked she would soon be back to visit the Juvenile Grange. Short talks were given by Masters Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Vanskiver and Past Master Mr. Krusen. Mr. Husted spoke briefly and invited the Grange to the 65th Anniversary of the Woodhull Grange.

After meeting closed, a mock wedding was held honoring Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hulse on their 25th Anniversary. Anna Mullen acted as Mother of Bride, Nelson Brewster as Father of Bride, in full regalia with shotgun; Betty Pease was attendant and Howard Brewster was minister.

Oyster stew and vegetable soup, cake, and jello were served after the meeting closed, with a large crowd in attendance.

A beautiful 25th Anniversary Cake was made by Anna Mullen and Pauline Pease in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Hulse. They also made a beautiful birthday cake in honor of the John Coats.
