Mrs. Floye Lever entertained the members of the L. L. Bridge Club and other guests at a 7:30 bridge dinner at her home Wednesday evening. Honors were presented to Mrs. Frank Holmes, Mrs. E. J. Allen and Mrs. Fay Boyd. Mrs. Lynn Trowbridge was awarded the guest prize.

Forty-two Andover men and boys attended a breakfast held at the Wellsville Methodist Church last Sunday morning. The general meeting was conducted by LaVern Polmateer, Wellsville Methodist Lay Leader. A total of 188 laymen plus ministers were in attendance with Andover in second highest place. The church attending were Wellsville, Andover, Scio, Allentown, Whitesville, Stannards and Shongo. An excellent breakfast was served by the Wellsville Methodist women which was followed by a tape recorded sermon by Bishop Ward which was broadcast at the same time over WLSV Radio Station. Following the meeting Holy Communion was given to those attending.

Mrs. Allen Schmidt, Mrs. Birgor Hugoson and Mrs. Donald Joyce of Wellsville will comprise a committee that will head the Country Fair this year, according to Mrs. Ruth Brown, president of the Jones Memorial Hospital Auxiliary.

Miss Ruth Padden and Mrs. Sheila Freeman have been selected as the New York Telephone's "Miss Voice and Courtesy" in their respective offices. Miss Padden is employed as an operator at the Wellsville office and Mrs. Freeman in Bolivar. Miss Padden is a graduate of Andover Central School and was formerly employed in Rochester. Mrs. Freeman is employed as night operator in the Bolivar office. She has been with the firm since 1960.

The 32nd St. Pat's Festival will be held at Alfred University this Thursday and Friday, March 20 and 21—an event which combines a spring fling with a public introduction to academic programs and their industrial applications. The week-end celebration is staged each year by students of State University of New York College of Ceramics at Alfred. An open house on Friday from 7 to 10 p. m. will welcome the public to displays and exhibits related to classroom and laboratory work of the Ceramic College students. The St. Pat's Ball will wind up the week-end celebration and will be highlighted by the crowning of the coed chosen as queen of the festival.

Allegany County "birders" will meet at the Scio School Library at 7:30 p. m., Friday, March 20 when Richard Rosche, Buffalo ornithologist, will meet with the local enthusiasts to make plans for the
