

Mrs. Alo Saluste

Freda J. Kupp and Alo Saluste

Were Married Saturday

The Third Presbyterian Church in Rochester, N. Y., was the setting for the wedding of Miss Freda Jeannette Kupp to Alo Saluste Saturday, March 28, 1964 at four o'clock. Miss Kupp is the daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Pease of Andover, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. Anton Saluste of 64 Cedar St., Kingston, N. Y., are parents of the groom.

The altar of the church was decorated with Easter lilies and pink azaleas for the wedding. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. William Young of Rochester, N. Y.

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by Roger Marsocci of Westmoreland drive, Rochester, the bride was attired in a floor length, white taffeta gown with a scoop neck, the bodice and waistline corded to form a V, long tapered sleeves fastened with tiny buttons at the wrist. A cathedral train completed the gown. The bouffant veil was held by a jeweled crown. Rosebuds and Stephanades formed Miss Kupp's cascade bouquet.

The maid-of-honor for the bride was Miss Patricia Barry of Rochester. Mrs. Donald Holden of Rochester and Miss Phyllis Dye of Wellsville were bridesmaids.

The maid-of-honor wore a floor length dress of blue silk organza with wide unpressed pleats, round neckline and short sleeves. The waistband showed a print of blue roses on white as did the back panel. She carried a bouquet of white carnations tipped with blue. The dresses of the bridesmaids were identical to the maid-of-honor or only in a darker shade of blue. Their bouquets were identical. Barry Millens of Kingston, N. Y., served as best man for Mr. Saluste. John Sheldon and John Elder, both of Rochester were the ushers for the occasion.

A reception for 150 guests was held at the Wishing Well on Chili Ave., Rochester. The three-tiered wedding cake was crowned by a miniature bride and groom.

Out-of-town guests were present from Kingston, Schenectady, New York City, Tonawanda, East Aurora, Brockport, Shortsville, Alfred, Wellsville and Andover.

Following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Saluste left for a wedding trip to Miami Beach, Fla. The couple will make their home at 65 Lenox St., Rochester, N. Y., upon their return.

Mrs. Saluste is a graduate of Andover Central School and Highland Hospital School of Nursing, where she is presently employed.

The groom is a graduate of the University of Rochester, where he was a member of Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity. He is presently employed by Xerox in Rochester, N. Y.
