Conde-Skinner

Miss Carole Marie Skinner, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Skinner of Sao Paulo, Brazil, became the bride of Lt. Robert Mark Conde, Tuesday, March 31, 1964 in the Gothic Chapel in Alfred.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Muriel Conde and the late Mr. Conde of Andover.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Daniel Bennett before the altar which was decorated with spring flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white ballerina length gown of lace and organza, a crown with finger-tip-length veil. White shoes and white gloves completed her ensemble. Yellow sweetheart roses and white carnations fashioned her bouquet.

Mrs. James Conde of Wellsville was the matron-of-honor. She was attired in green tissue taffeta, complementing the yellow gowns of the bridesmaids, Miss Judy Cleary of Cleveland, Ohio and Miss Jacqueline Conde of Andover.

James Conde of Wellsville, was best man and David Conde of Andover and David Skinner of Sao Paulo, Brazil were ushers.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of Mrs. Ramon F. Reynolds.

Mrs. Conde attended the American graded school at Sao Paulo and Alfred University. Her husband attended Andover Central School and graduated from Alfred University, and is now serving in the U. S. Army.
