The Greenwood group of Operation Advance program held its final meeting recently with the topic "Amidst World's Tensions." Cliton York was discussion leader. The purpose and results of Federal Foreign Aid policy was discussed and was supplemented with the viewing of the film "The Only War We Want". Also discussed was the recent developments in Panama and the effect of the Cuban situation on our relation with the rest of the world and especially those of South America. The thought was expressed that the American people perhaps should place more faith in the confidence of the nations leaders and our government and that in doing so the people should also take matter of the election of those leaders seriously. It was felt that the Student Exchange Program and the Peace Corp were two strong ambassadors of good will. The group seemed to feel that there might be some benefits occur from a more firm and intelligent basis on many of the international issues.

The group consisted of twenty participants and for the four weekly meetings averaged an attendance of 14. It was agreed that the Operation Advance program was an interesting and productive one and the thought expressed that perhaps in the following years two groups might operate in the community.

Shopping imports?

Start with the facts, not the advertising claims and pretty pictures. Most of imported cars are pretty much the same, but the specifications and performance characteristics aren't. Nor is value. We have an import-car comparison folder with all of the facts and none of the fluff. It compares SAAB to the cars listed above. Read it before you buy any car. It's yours free. Stop in or give us a call. We'll be happy to mail it to you.
