Spring is here! An annual sign of the coming of spring has again arrived. Look out your window and you will see young and old altho paddling histoles over bill alike peddling bicycles over hill and dale. Each year as the bicyclists reach our nation's highways, the story, "Boy Killed While Eiding Bicycle" is repeated many times over. This year let's join the National Bike Safety Association in urging careful and correct use of these vehicles. These rules are made to be observed not only by the young in body, but also by the young in

Senior Interview

This week we chose to honor Magda Montalvo, our seventeen year-old Latin American Senior. Marchedarias Catholic School in Quito, Ecuador. She has taken various subjects including: English, Chemistry, Physics, Math, History, geology, religion, gym, sewing. Spanish, ethics, logic and biology. She also took typing and shorthand at home.

Magda tells us her favorite hobbies are music dancing, reading and taking eare of her three dogs. Among her favorites we find: color, green; food. pizza; book, 'Gone With The Wind'.'

Although her plans aren't definite, she would 'like to go to a junior college in Quito, when she returns in July.'

Magda, we have enjoyed having you as a member of our Senior Class and hope that your year in Andover has been a pleasant one. Marchederies Catholic School in
