

Gavin-Palmer

Miss Dawn Marie Palmer became the bride of Charles F. Gavin of Andover, Saturday, May 9, 1964 at 1 p. m. The single-ring ceremony was performed at Starnards by the Justice of the Peace Richard Tompkins.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Palmer of Scio, selected a two-piece basket weave suit of medium blue for her marriage complemented by a white flowered hat, beige accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Acting as maid-of-honor was Miss Donna Palmer of Rochester, wearing a navy blue sheer dress with white hat, navy and white accessories and a white corsage.

Bradley Wright, Andover, served as best man.

A reception for 100 guests was held at the Hotel Joyce in Andover following the ceremony with the Misses Barbara Clark of Hornell, Joy Hargrove of Rathbone and Connie Lewis, niece of the groom, as assisting hostesses.

A four-tiered white wedding cake decorated with dove and wedding bells and white tapers in silver candelabra centered the bride's table. The tiers were separated with pillars and swans.

Following the reception, attended by guests from Andover, Scio, Rochester, Wellsville, Hornell, Cuba and Rathbone, the couple left for a wedding trip to New York City.

The bride, a graduate of Scio Central School will continue to be employed at Marion Rahr Corp., in Hornell. The groom attended Andover Central School and works as a mason.

Prenuptial events included a tupperware shower given by the Misses Barbara Clark and Joy Hargrove.

The couple will reside on Rochambeau Ave., Ext., in Andover.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Held At Church Hall

The Annual Mother-Daughter Banquet was held last Tuesday evening at the Blessed Sacrament Hall. A delicious roast beef dinner was served to the guests by the ladies of the Grange. The tables were attractively arranged with spring floral centerpieces and white tablecloths.

After the invocation by Rev. John R. Shea, and the dinner, Mrs. Charles Joyce welcomed the mothers, daughters and guests, and invited Mrs. Richard Fellenz to act as toastmistress for the evening. Musical selections for the occasion were a flute trio by Susan Reil, Rosemary Baker and Gail Clark; a piano solo by Cheryl Joyce; and a vocal solo by Mary Ellen Smith. Mrs. Robert Smith was called upon for a toast to the daughters.

Awards were presented by the toastmistress to the oldest mother present, Mrs. Clara Lynch; the mother with youngest baby, Mrs. Leo D. Joyce; the mother with the most daughters present, Mrs. Robert McCormick; and the mother and daughter coming the farthest distance, Mrs. Bonnie Stackwick and Diane.

The highlight of the evening was the guest speaker, Rev. Louis Hendricks of St. Brendan's Church Almond, who aptly inspired the group on the role and dedication of a Mother in the home. He concluded the program with Benediction.
