Greenwood Central School News

Athletes of Greenwood Central School will be honored May 29th when they will be guests of honor at a dance in the school gymnasium. Players of all sports, score keepers, managers, and coaches have been invited by the Booster Club of Greenwood to the dance sponsored by the club, according to Wallace Holt, Club President.

In addition to being guests of the Club a special program will be held during intermission, paying tribute to the guests. The dance is also open to the public at the standard admission fee.

The Booster Club is supported by donations and takes an interest in civic affairs and movements which are of benefit to the community. It is in its second year of operation.

Twelve years of service to the Greenwood Central School district will end July 1 when Wayne Warriner, member of the Board of Education, leaves his post. Warriner, whose term expires, announced at a recent meeting of the Board that he would not be a candidate for reelection, according to Lloyd Chaffee, Board President. Warriner was appointed in December of 1951 to fill the unexpired term of George Rollins. Subsequently he served two elected terms of 5 years each.

The Board also gave an appointment to Charles Smith of Rexville, to fill out the remainder of the year in the position held by the late Robert Dempsey. Smith has indicated that he will circulate petitions and will be a candidate for election to fill the remaining time of Dempsey's term.

Following discussion of next year's curriculum and plans, authorization was given for participation in a special class program, shared with other schools through the Allegany Board of Cooperative Educational Services. Limited participation in classes in the Wellsville school system have been authorized and the principal instructed to implement the program.

The Board further discussed recent proposals in the legislature, it was thought that continued study should be made of the problem over a period of time and that consideration should be given to various possible and practical suggestions.
