Soil Conservation News

The Allegany County Soil Conservation District has given three prizes to county students for their conservation essays. The essays were entitled "Clear Water Through Conservation". The winning essays were submitted by: Donald Burdick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Burdick of Friendship, First Prize; Jeanne Kelley, daughter of Mrs. Clair Kelley, Jersey Hill Road, Angelica, Second Prize; and Linda Middaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Middaugh of Andover, Third Prize.

The Directors were pleased with the response to the conservation essay contest and thank all students who submitted essays.

The Conservation Tour on Saturday, May 16th, was well attended by F.F.A. and 4-H members and leaders.

The group saw a good conservation plan in action at the Robert McNinch farm in Belmont. They visited the State Forests along Route 244. Here they saw thinning and pruning of trees in mature timber stands. They visited Eddy Foster's Recreation Area and tree plantation. Here Mr. Foster gave information on the operation of the area under the recreation club. He gave a demonstration of Christmas tree prun-

Linda Middaugh Receives Conservation Essay Prize

Miss Linda Middaugh, accompanied by her father, Frederick Middaugh and her Grandmother, Mrs. Jessie Middaugh of Friendship, attended the Allegany County Soil Conservation Meeting at the Belmont Grange Hall Friday evening. Linda was third place winner of the Conservation Essay Contest sponsored jointly by the New York Soil Conservation Districts and the New York Grange.

The essays were on the topic, "Clear Water Through Conservation". Linda received $5.00 for placing third in the contest. Judges for the contest, open to all schools in Allegany County, were: Mrs. Harold Crowther, Belmont; Donald Jones, Alfred State Tech. Institute; Lawrence Dedrick, Allegany County 4-H Club Agent; Wendell Chamberlain, Allegany Pomona Master and Leslie Whitney, Allegany Unit Conservationist.

BOCES To Assist With Film Library

At its Annual Meeting held Tuesday, May 19, 1964 the Steering Committee of the Allegany County Film Library voted to move its headquarters from Wellsville to the Board of Cooperative Education Service Office in Belmont and elected William Farnsworth, Supervisor of Audio-visual aids for Allegany County, as its Executive Secretary - Treasurer. The assessment per classroom teacher for funds to purchase new films and operate the library was set at ten dollars for 1964-65. Mrs. A. Patricia Lowrey of Whitesville Central School was again elected Chairman of the Steering Committee.

During the meeting selection was made of approximately five hundred films which will be available to member schools for the coming year. The following Allegany County schools are now members of the Film Library: Andover, Angelica, Belfast, Belmont, Bolivar, Canaseraga, Cuba, Fillmore, Friendship, Rushford, Wellsville and Whitesville.

Even though we fail we are no worse off than if we hadn't tried.

Town Of Andover Residents To Have New Letter Address

Town of Andover residents (outside the Village) will soon receive a letter with a strange new address.

Sample: John Doe
1111 Happy Hollow Road
Andover, New York

The Andover Fire Department, in cooperation with the Andover Town Board, has recently completed a program of rural numbering assignments. The letter which will be sent to all Town of Andover residents contains both an explanation of the system and an opportunity to secure the new number.

The system of numbering followed in Andover Township follows the uniform code adopted and endorsed by the Allegany County Board of Supervisors. The intent of the system is to make fire, police, utility, delivery, and other services more readily and speedily available to our residents outside the Village.

Dates Claimed:

June 6: Rebekah Bake Sale.
