

Richard M. Baker
Weds Brenda J. Burdsall

The marriage of Miss Brenda Jean Burdsall and Richard Moss Baker II was solemnized in a double-ring ceremony Saturday, May 30, 1964 at the Christian Temple in Wellsville.

Nuptial vows were pledged at 2 p. m., before the Rev. Philip N. Hollebeak, pastor, following a prelude of appropriate wedding music provided by organist, Mrs. Boisch. Soloist Richard Kephart sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The candlelight service was performed before an altar decorated with baskets of Cala lilies and pastel carnations and daisies. The bride's sister, Barbara, acted as maid-of-honor and another sister, Debra, and the Misses Connie Brown and Janice Taylor, were bridesmaids.

William R. MacCrea of Alfred served as best man and ushers were John R. Burdsall II, brother of the bride, and the groom's brothers, Michael and Stephen.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Burdsall of 31 Maple Ave., Wellsville and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Baker of R.D. 1, Andover.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor-length gown of silk imported organdy, fashioned with basque waist and scalloped neckline enhanced with reembroidered Alencon lace and seed pearls. The bouffant skirt with chapel train was embellished with the same reembroidery in a ribbon design. Her elbow-length silk illusion veil was caught to a crown adorned with seed pearls and crystals, and she wore a tiny silver cross, gift of the groom. She carried a cascade bouquet of Cala lilies and pink roses.

The maid-of-honor was gowned in a street-length sheath pastel yellow gown with bouffant overskirt. Her headdress was a shoulder-length veil attached to a bow made of the same material as the dress. The bridesmaids wore identical dresses in pastel green, pink and blue with matching accessories.

The attendants carried white carnation fans with satin ribbon streamers to match their gowns.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Burdsall selected a sheath dress of medium blue crystal peau with blue and white accessories complemented by a corsage of pink daisies. The groom's mother chose a toast silk organza sheath dress with toast and white accessories and wore a corsage of yellow daisies.

A reception was held in the church parlors for 150 guests attending from Bolivar, Andover, Hornell, Buffalo, Hudson; Coudersport, Westfield and Laceyville, Pa., and Medford Lake, N. J.

Lilacs, white wedding bells and candles decorated the reception hall and a four-tiered wedding cake, with miniature bride and groom, made by Mrs. Richard Fleischman, centered the bride's table.

Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Kimball Campbell, Cuba; Miss Noreen Ransom, Miss Janet Drew of Wellsville, and Mrs. Gary Hoagland, Andover, sister of the groom.

Following a short wedding trip through New York State, the couple will reside in a mobile home at Stannards. For traveling the bride wore a white brocade suit with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

The bride is a graduate of Wellsville Central School, Class of 1961, and Weaver Airline Personnel School and until recently was an operator at the local telephone office.

The groom graduated in 1960 from Andover High School and attended Cornell University for two years. He is the new credit manager at the local Sherwin-Williams Store.

Prerential events included a pantry and linen shower given by Mrs. Earl Robbins, Mrs. Duane Hull, and Mrs. Donald Perrin; a grocery shower given by Mrs. William Burdsall, Olean; and variety showers given by the Misses Janet Taylor and Connie Brown; and by Mrs. David Peterson, Mrs. Lloyd Grames and Mrs. Elizabeth Burner.
