

John Common and Linda Coffin Married

Miss Linda Coffin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon B. Coffin, became the bride of Ensign John Common, son of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Common, on Thursday, June 4, 1964 at St. Andrews Chapel, at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.

White gladioli and chrysanthemums with white candles decorated the altar for the double ring ceremony which was performed by the Rev. Mark Sullivan, Academy Chaplain. The ceremony was presided over by appropriate wedding music by the Academy organist. The couple left the church with the traditional arch of swords ceremony.

Miss Carole Bailman of Tom's River, N. J., acted as Maid of Honor. The Misses Margaret Mrazier, Silver Creek, N. Y., Donna Herb, Lakeview, N. Y., Gail Kranich, Jenkintown, Pa., and Miss Hilda T. Soto of Paeanam, R. P., were the bridesmaids.

Ensign Richard Williams of Memphis, Tenn., served as best man. The ushers were Ensigns Robert Davenport, Holton, Maine; James Sorenson, Fullerton, Calif.; Michael Foley, Quonset Pt., R. I.; Lt. (jg) Dennis Joyce, New London, Conn.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor-length gown of white Irish linen, designed with bateau neckline, empire bodice and a fine skirt ending in a removable square cut train. The gown was trimmed with white satin appliques on the bodice and accented with satin appliques, in a border effect on the train.

Her headpiece was a pillbox of linen enchanced with satin appliques and a bouffant elbow length veil of French silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias and ivy.

The attendants wore floor-length gowns of aqua Irish linen, with Aline skirts and a white accent of velvet ribbon on the empire waistline. They wore matching flower hats with small veils of French silk illusion, and carried white roses and lavender mums.

The reception was held at the Officers Club with guests present from Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Tennessee.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Coffin wore a mint green silk suit with white accessories and Mrs. Common wore a misty rose silk suit with white accessories. Both wore white orchid corsages.

For a wedding trip to Cape Cod, Mass., the bride wore a dusty rose silk dress and jacket, with white accessories and a white gardenia corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Andover Central School and Alfred University School of Nursing.

The groom also graduated from Andover Central School, attended Alfred University and graduated from the U. S. Naval Academy. The couple will reside in New London, Conn., where the groom will attend Nuclear Power School.
