Alfred Bank To Hold Open House Sunday

The public is cordially invited to attend an "open house" at the newly constructed University office of The Citizens National Bank at Alfred, N. Y., on Sunday, June 21, 1964 from 1:00 until 5:00 P. M.

The building which has been under construction for approximately one year is located at 39 North Main Street on the site of the former Bennehoff home which was removed to make way for the new building. Richard Ade, architect, of Carl C. Ade Associates, Rochester, N. Y., provided the plans for the Georgian type building. The new facility will provide a most modern building with a spacious lobby, drive-in window and a large customers parking area at the building. An officers area, six teller stations and Board room are located on the main banking floor together with the vault, customers safety deposit, coupon booth and other services. The basement area is utilized by the bookkeeping department. The entire building is equipped with most efficient lighting and a central air conditioning system.

Commenting on the completion of the new building, Harold L. Bloss, President of the bank, stated, "The completion of this new and modern banking facility, in one of the most progressive communities in our county marks another milestone in the history of The Citizens National Bank to provide the best banking services to the communities served. We of The Citizens National Bank have dedicated ourselves to furthering the prosperity, growth and educational climate of this entire area.

The University bank of Alfred was merged with The Citizens National Bank of Wellsville, Wellsville New York on August 31, 1956. The University bank was established as a private bank in 1883. The bank received its state charter in September of 1884. C. R. Fenner entered the banking

Andover Residents At Rotary Convention In Toronto

TORONTO, Ont., Canada — In Toronto for the 1964 convention of Rotary International are Ruby and Harold Huffcut of East Valley Rd., Andover. They arrived Sunday, June 7 and plan to return Thursday, June 11.

The Rotary convention begins June 7 and closes June 11. It has brought to Toronto more than 14,000 Rotarians and members of their families from 71 countries in all parts of the world.

Among the featured speakers on the Rotary convention program are Lester B. Pearson, Prime Minister of Canada; Carlos P. Romulo, former ambassador to the UN and now president of the University of the Philippines; and Clinton P. Anderson, U. S. senator from New Mexico and a past president of Rotary International.

Highlights of the convention entertainment program is an Ice Revue on Wednesday evening (June 10 at Toronto's world-famous Maple Leaf Gardens). Its cast includes champion Canadian skaters and 300 other performers. Earlier on Sunday (June 7), Mr. and Mrs. Huffcut saw a musical show with an all-star cast produced specially for the 55th annual Rotary convention.

In the House of Friendship, a traditional feature of Rotary conventions, the Huffcuts relaxed with thousands of other Rotary
