Editorial

by Jean DeRemer

As next year's Hi Herald Editor, I would like to congratulate this year's Editor, Co-Editor and Sports Editor for doing such fine work on the Hi Herald. I would like to thank the entire staff for a year of interesting reading.

Also, I want to congratulate Sharon Congelli for being selected Co-Editor and Danny Smith for his selection as Sports Editor.

Here's hoping that next year's Hi Herald will be as enjoyable and interesting to everyone as this year's has been.

"Shangri-la" Is Junior-Senior Prom Theme

June 19, 1964 will be the date for one of the most beautiful prom settings ever. Decorations, under the supervision of Mr. William MacCrea and a prom committee, will carry out the lovely "Shangri-la" theme in an arrangement of flowers, trees and a fountain flowing into a pool.

The crowning of a king and queen promises to be one of the highlights of the evening with music being supplied by Max Baker and his band.

Tickets for the big event are only $2.00 per couple and $1.75 per stag. Remember: June 19, from 9 to 1, in the Andover Central School Auditorium.

Faculty Members Honored At Picnic

Several faculty members were honored at a Faculty Picnic held at Stony Brook Park on Tuesday, June 9.

Mrs. Carolyn Helmer, a teacher at Andover for the past nineteen years, who is retiring from teaching, was presented with a watch by the Andover Faculty and Staff.

Also honored at this same time with gifts were other members of the Faculty who will be leaving as of June. Among these were Miss Brenda Altmeter, Mrs. Agnes Gross and Mr. Gary Swimley.

Six New Members In Honor Society

Six new members were inducted into the National Honor Society at a special assembly held on Wednesday, June 10th. The new members are Debbie Collins and Jackie Conde, Seniors; Dave Wightman, a Junior; Debbie Dunham, Jean Hames and Martha Lynch, Sophomores.

Membership in the Society is based on scholarship, leadership, service and character.

Junior News

The senior pictures for the Class of '65 will be taken June 23-26. All Juniors must sign the list in the Junior homeroom designating the date and time they desire to have their pictures taken. They must make arrangements to be at the studio of Mr. Paul Giguac in Alfred at the appropriate date and time.
