

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

Robert Stephens spend Sunday to Wednesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Stephens. Robert is employed by the Attica Plant at Winatchee, Washington and had been in Pennsylvania on a two weeks business trip for his company. His family was not with him but plan to come this summer.

The Summer Recreation Program begins in town July 6. Miss Barbara Bamphig, will be in charge of the morning program for children and school.

Principal Richard Willover of Friendship has accepted a supervisory position at Attica. He is a former G.C.S. Coach and married Rosamond Rollins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Rollins.

Redmond Goodno of Buffalo spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. J. H. Goodno. Mrs. Walter Redmond of West Greenwood was an overnight guest Friday and they attended the Commencement program for Lynn Redmond. Mrs. Redmond was also interested in seeing her neighbor Mary Jo McCormick.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Kernan attended Commencement at Jasper Central School Monday night when their nephew, Dean Wood was a graduate. Sheldon and Suzanne Kernan attended Troupsburg Central School Commencement Monday night.

Miss Lynne Cable of Andover spent the week-end with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers. Monday night they attended Commencement at Andover Central School when her sister was a member of the Class. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ordway of Canistota also attended to see their niece graduate.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Chaffee and sons Gary and Duane went to their cottage at Lamoka Lake Saturday for a week's vacation.

Miss Diane Woodward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Woodward, enrolls in the Medical Laboratory course at Alfred Agricultural Technical College Monday, June 29. She is a member of the Senior Class at G.C.S.

Miss Sabrey Stephens went to Caledonia Monday to spend a week with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Clark.

Miss Sharon Shelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Sney of Elkland is spending two weeks with her cousin, Valencia Greene and going to Bible School with her this week.

Rev. Roger Williams is attending a meeting in Syracuse Wednesday and Thursday of the Northeast Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church. Rev. Williams is Historian of Western New York Conference formerly Genesee.

Pvt. Donald F. Cady, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Cady and the husband of the former, Onalee Pierce of Canistota, R.D. 2, completed eight weeks training Nike-Hercules Missile Crewman Course Army Air Defense at Fort Bliss, Texas, and has been sent to Alaska for 18 months.

Mrs. Edward Gratto and daughter, Marcie left Friday by Erie-Lackawanna for Chicago. They will spend several weeks visiting their son and brother, Rev. and Mrs. James Cole and daughters.

Town Clerk Mrs. Marjorie York and daughter, Mrs. James Murphy attended a Town Clerks County dinner-meeting at Kill Buck Inn

Wednesday night. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henshaw and family moved last week to the Methodist Parsonage from a trailer-home on the Canistota Rd. He is an Art Teacher employed by Steuben County.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Muller of Fairport attended the Kindergarten Commencement Wednesday afternoon and the Senior Commencement Friday night at the Central School. Mrs. Muller is the former Maxine Younglove, Kindergarten Teacher at G.S.C.

Rev. and Mrs. Robert Jones of Buffalo, former Pastor of the Methodist Church attended Commencement Friday night. Daily Vacation Bible School opened at the Methodist Church Monday morning with 75 children enrolled in nine classes. Mrs. Harriet Redmond is superintendent of the school. Mrs. Lunette Hale directs music and Miss Gail Tennant pianist. The teachers are: Mrs. Ruth Nearpass, Miss Grace Young, nursery; Miss Sandra Greene, pre-kindergarten; Mrs. Virginia Hunt, kindergarten; Mrs. Ann Stephens and Miss Jeanne Fisher, first grade; Miss Donna Wallace, second grade; Mrs. Virgil Streeter, third grade; Mrs. Virginia York, fourth grade; Mrs. Ethel Tennant, fifth grade and Mrs. Geraldine Lamphier, sixth grade. Assistants include Judy Porter, Elaine Allen, Jolene Cheesman, Judy York, Carol Warriner, Beverly Quinn and Diane Smith. The theme of the school is: "Jesus the Promised Saviour". The closing picnic will be Saturday morning concluding at 12:30. The program for the parents and friends will be the regular worship period at 9:45 this Sunday. Rev. Roger Williams spoke to the children Monday morning.

The church summer schedule starts in July. The church school classes will not meet until September. In summer Junior Church for small children is held in the Hall during the sermon. Families are to come at 9:45. The choir will be on vacation and special music will be provided each week. The Kindergarten Class presented a graduation program at the Central School Wednesday afternoon directed by the teacher Mrs. Ann White, accompanied by Mrs. June Rollins. Cindy Dennison announced the program and the Pledge to the Flag was led by Billy Waters and Larry Meehan. The main characters for Goldilocks and the Three Bears: Father Bear, Gary White; Mother Bear, Gwenda Witmer; Baby Bear, Becky Bassett; Goldilocks, Deborah Cook; Fairy Godmother, Lisa Nearpass. Other members of the class were; Dolls, Playmates and Lollipop. A song by older girls—Pamela Holt, Starla Jackson and Betty Burley; songs, "Little Minds Think Big" by Deborah Cook; song, "Me, and My Teddy Bear", Polly Edwards, Peggy Hanback, Gwenda Witmer Joan Miles, Billy Waters; song, "Open Up Your Heart", by Becky Bassett. Diplomas were awarded to 27 children by the teacher Mrs. White. Closing songs "Tell It On The Mountain" and "God Bless America". Many relatives and friends attended.

Michael Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fisher fell off a wagon last Tuesday and broke a bone in his lower right arm. He was an overnight patient at the St. James Mercy Hospital.

Roger Williamson has a fractured bone in his right arm. He first cracked the bone by a cow and fell off his horse on the same arm.

A capacity crowd attended Commencement at Greenwood Central School Friday night. The guest speaker was Robert G. Smith, director of the Office of Public Information of Colgate University. He spoke on "A Glimpse of the Future". He said larger community units are the coming thing in recentralizing of schools, shopping centers and churches. Rural people will need to give up some of their independence for the good of the whole region. The processional and recessional were played by Mrs. June Rollins. The Rev. Roger Williams gave the Invocation and Benediction. Class Salutatorian was Barry Quinn and Valedictorian was Janet Harker-rider. The girls ensemble sang, "Halls of Ivy" and "Now is the Hour". Class awards were given by Advisor Robert Hoagland and the Diplomas by Lloyd Chaffee, President of the Board of Education.

Miss Sandra Greene accompanied by Mrs. June Rollins, played a special number on her baritone horn at the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Sunday.

Priest of the St. Mary's Church, Rexville and St. Joachim's Church Canistota. He spoke on Spiritual Maturity. In part, he said, emotional maturity never quite reached. Physical, yes. Greatest unhappiness in life—caused by yourself, selfishness. Happiness—give love. Bible is the key to real truth and sincerity—but has been ignored too much in last 100 years.

Be spiritual mature, sense of responsibility. Mature to image of God and use him for inspiration and in the Bible are the laws of freedom. The Mixed Ensemble sang "He, Watching Over Israel" and "Alleluia". Robert Henshaw, Art Teacher, sang "Lord's Prayer".

Diane Woodward, third ranking in the class, represented the Seniors in presenting the mantle to Reed Lowrey, President of the Junior Class. Invocation and Benediction was offered by the Rev. Carol Bassett. Music for the Processional and Recessional was played by June Rollins.

The Senior Class was honored guests of the Junior Class recently at the annual Junior-Senior Banquet held at the Greenwood Central School.

George Angello, Commercial Teacher, was the speaker. The invocation was given by Rev. Bassett and Benediction by Father Collins. Reed Lowrey, President of the Junior Class, was Master of Ceremonies. Larry Dieterman spoke on behalf of the Junior Class and Barry Quinn on behalf of the Senior Class. Following the banquet, slides of the recent Senior Trip to Washington were shown.

Mothers of the Juniors planned, prepared and were in charge of serving the meal. The Mothers working were: Mrs. Virginia Meehan, Mrs. Marjorie Herrick, Mrs. Patricia Lowrey, Mrs. June McCaffery, Mrs. Gertrude Stephens, Mrs. Clara York, Mrs. Irene Edwards, Mrs. Helen Warriner, Mrs. Vesta Whitsett, Mrs. Katherine Krusen, Mrs. Ann Sky, Mrs. Rach-

Greenwood Central School

D. Lynn Redmond, senior of Greenwood Central School, will enter Allegheny College at Meadville, Pennsylvania. He will take a pre-learned curriculum according to Myron Phillips, Guidance Director.

He is recipient of a college scholarship there and alternate for State Regents Scholarship. He was active in varsity basketball, soccer and track; band; National Honor Society; yearbook club; County speaking contest; delegate to Governor's Youth Conference; and was Athletic Treasure of Student Council.

Lynn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Redmond, R.D. 1, Greenwood, N. Y.

The graduating class of 25 students of the Greenwood Central School, took part Sunday, 8:15 p. m., in the traditional Baccalaureate Service held at the school.

The Baccalaureate address was given by the Rev. Vincent Collins,

Letters To The Editor

June 8, 1964
Ithaca, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Allen:
Like entire paper very much and especially very competent Greenwood News by Grace Young.
Yours truly
Ross Lee Baker

June 6, 1964

Dear Mr. Allen
I would like permission to use your "Letter To The Editor" column to publicly express my gratitude to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McClure for the wonderful refreshing presentations by the A.C.S., Music Department.

How fortunate we all are to benefit from this talented couple who have done so much to encourage and teach the young people in the Music Department.

I know I speak for all, when I say to Mr. and Mrs. McClure and to all the young talented musicians and singers, we are proud of you and we thank you for the privilege of enjoying the "fruit of your labors."

Most sincerely
Mrs. Donald Weber

June 11, 1964

Andover News
Andover, New York
Dear Sir:

The issue of The News, which you sent, ne proved so interesting to me that I am enclosing check for a year's subscription.

If possible, will you begin with this week's issue?

Yours truly,
Reva C. McCaffery

ael Holt, Mrs. Virginia Hunt and Mrs. Mavis Lewis.

Mrs. Shirley Cook and her Home making girls had charge of floral decorations. Seventeen members of the Sophomore Class waited on tables.

Summer has a word for fashion

Dolfina Sandals
from Italy

Sizes to 10
Narrow and Medium
Only $4.99
Child. $3.99

Sizes to 10
Only $4.99
Child. $3.99

The Raffinate Natural White

Ludden Shoe Store

Wellsville, N. Y.

Pittsburgh Mildrew Resistant!

SUN-PROOF HOUSE PAINT

SELF-CLEANING
CONTAINS VITOLIZED OIL
FUME RESISTANT
Limited Time Only
$5.98 gallon

SAVE 20 Per Cent

HOUSE of GLASS

Bolivar Road Wellsville Phone 1106

DO YOU NEED CASH

For Any Worth While Purpose
Loans Up To $800.00

24 Months To Repay
Public Loans, Inc.
82 N. Main St. Phone 777
WELLSVILLE, N. Y.
Open Mon. Thru. Thurs.
9 A. M. till 5 P. M.
Friday till 2 P. M.