

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

Jake Van Arsdale of Canisteo, the new Western District Scout Executive was chairman of the Eagle Court of Honor at the Masonic Temple, Wednesday night to give the Eagle Award to Barry Quinn. Barry is a member of the Explorer Post 62, sponsored by Sentinel Lodge No. 151, F. & A. M. Rev. Carol Bassett, pastor of the R. L. D. S. Church of which Barry is a member, gave the invocation and Benediction. Mike Cheesman lighted the candles and Duane Chaffee led the Pledge to the Flag. Larry Dieterman and Duane Chaffee escorted the candidate to stand by the Flag. Three Masonic committeemen reviewed Barry's qualifications for Eagle; Lloyd Chaffee reported he had the required 21 Merit Badges; Gerald Greene, spoke on Leadership; and Orville Matthews on character as shown in school and church. Principal Wesley Tennant was narrator for the Pageant on Scout Progress, assisted by Scouts showing insignia; Steve Heckman, the Tenderfoot, Larry Holt, 2nd Class, Floyd Drake, 1st Class, Charles Feenaughty, Star and James Feenaughty, Life. Rev. John Harrison was the speaker and referred to the Explorer Code that strength comes from Faith in God. The escorts took Barry to the right of the altar and brought his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Archie Stephens to stand by him. Hayden Cook, Post Advisor and local chairman, gave the Eagle Pin to Mr. Stephens, who gave it to his wife to pin on her grandson. A miniature pin was also given to Barry to pin on his grandmother. Lloyd Chaffee presented a citation to Barry and read a letter from the National Scout Executive. Edward Mullen, Scoutmaster of Troop 62, gave Barry a Square Knot to wear on his uniform, also a wall plaque and card. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Chaffee were chairman for refreshments served to 50 guests.

Paul Jones of Arentown is replacing Daniel Redmond as the local barber. Mr. Redmond ran the shop on part-time basis for 8 years and ended Commencement week giving each Senior boy a free haircut. He is retiring because of his health and asked Jones to take the shop. Mr. Jones has had six years experience in Rochester; two in Hornell and three in Alfred, where he will continue part time. The shop will be open the same as before, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings and all day Friday and Saturday. He is married and has a two year-old daughter.

The Wallace - Young families held their 80th Reunion at the Bennetts Community Building Sunday, June 28, with 57 members attending. Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Alvin Teribury, Mrs. Elva Sherman and Mrs. Sally Bassett. Relatives from Hinsdale entertained with musical numbers during the afternoon. Officers elected were: John J. Lewis of Webster, President; Merrit Osmin of Greenwood, Vice President; and Mrs. Alvin Teribury, Secretary and Treasurer.

Mrs. Ruth York of Andover and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas York and sons of West Greenwood attended the Methodist Church Service Sunday.

Redmond Goodno of Buffalo, spent the Fourth of July week-end with his mother, Mrs. J. H. Goodno.

Members of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints held a fellowship dinner following the morning service July 5th in the basement dining room. Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Gibson of Gold, Pa., were honored for their 54th Wedding Anniversary. They were presented with flowers and a corsage for Mrs. Gibson, also flowers for her husband.

Members of the Adult Church School Class taught by Clinton York and their families, held a picnic in the Methodist Church Hall at noon Sunday. There were 35 in attendance, closing the class for the summer. The planning committee assisting Mr. and Mrs. York included Mr. and Mrs. Joseph White, Mr. and Mrs. Charles

Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne War-riner and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mullen, Jr.

Miss Cheryl Hussey was soloist Sunday accompanied by Mrs. June Rollins. She sang her solo from the original oratorio given at Houghton College. Miss Sandra Greene and Miss Gail Tennant were in charge of Vacation Church.

Virgil Hussey is teaching a 3-weeks course at Roberts Wesleyan College, June 27 to July 17. Cheryl Hussey is taking the course and the family is living at the dormitory on campus. Mr. and Mrs. Hussey and Cheryl were home Thursday night to Sunday afternoon for the Fourth of July week-end.

The family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lamphier held the annual Reunion July 4 at the Bennetts Community building. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Lamphier of Addison and family were hosts for the 105 members attending. The Glenn Mullen family will be hosts next year.

The GLF Mill was closed Friday and Saturday for Fourth of July week-end. This week store manager Ronald Nearpass is on vacation and Richard Wallace is in charge, assisted by Mike Sky. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Nearpass spent Friday to Tuesday with his parents at Holcomb. Steve and Lisa Nearpass had been with their grandparents all of last week.

The Volunteer Firemen entered the water fight at the Canisteo Celebration Saturday morning and won a trophy. The men had practiced at the South Main Street bridge twice. The men entered the County Firemen's Parade at Canisteo in the evening, the new truck and men in uniform and the old truck with comedy crew and smoke. The Greenwood Central School Band marched in the Canisteo Parade and won a prize.

Scoutmaster Ed Mullen and Scouts of Troop 62 marched in the Andover Parade in the morning.

Francis Acker and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Feenaughty and family attended the Hartsville Old Home Day and dinner Sunday. It was also a farewell for their Pastor Rev. Lourinda Sanford.

Duane Coates entered the St. James Mercy Hospital last Wednesday for surgery on his knee injured in a baseball game. A specialist from Bath was his surgeon.

Miss Anna Marie Murray returned home Friday from the St. James Mercy Hospital a week after surgery.

Steve Moore, son of Mrs. Ronald Hurd is recuperating at home from a cut foot where he stepped on glass. He was in the St. James Mercy Hospital.

Fred Kirk took his children to Dryden last week to spend two weeks with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Halsey and family are spending their week-ends at Canandaigua Lake.

Miss Diane Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arling Allen of Wellsville spent last week visiting her cousin, Miss Debra Teribury.

Mr. and Mrs. Harland Knight of Jacksonville were week-end guests of her Aunt, Miss Ellen Young and took Misses Ellen and Grace Young to Canisteo Saturday to see the Fourth of July Parade.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Canty of Belmont came Saturday and took her parents to Troupsburg to the Firemen's Ham Dinner and Fourth of July Celebration.

Mrs. Anna Wood spent Saturday with her nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Almon Wood of Canisteo.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Mattison and family have moved from their home on the Christian Hollow Road to Hornell.

Mr. and Mrs. James DeMarte and son moved last week from a trailer home at Buena Vista to the William Glover house, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Crawford. Mr. DeMarte is the English Teacher at G. C. S.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hunt and family and Mr. and Mrs. Reed Lowrey and family are spending the summer at their cottage at Waneta Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Spencer and daughters, Beverly and Joan spent June 22 to 26 visiting at the New York World's Fair. June 30 the Spencer family, their mothers, Mrs. Ray Spencer of Canisteo and Mrs. Roy Stephens and son, Glenn Stephens, started on a summer trip to California to visit Kenneth and Merle Spencer and families.

Walter Redmond, astronomer lecturer at the Hudson River Planetarian in Yonkers arrived home Friday for the summer.

Timothy Pritchard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Pritchard, was a patient at the St. James Mercy Hospital several days last week. He fell at his grandfather's home in Westfield, Pa., and fractured his leg.

Gary Chaffee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Chaffee, began his third season as one of the Counselors at Camp Gorton on Waneta Lake, Monday, June 29. The first week was in preparation and Scouts signed in Sunday, July 5.

Mrs. Pearl Bassett attended a family dinner Wednesday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred Mitchell and family in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Mitchell. Mrs. Leon Burley and family of Stephens Mills also attended and brought her mother home.

Mrs. Richard Stephens of Canisteo attended the Eagle Court of Honor Wednesday night in honor of her nephew, Barry Quinn.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Chaffee and son, Duane, returned to their cottage at Lamoka Lake Thursday for the week-end.

Miss Darlene Burley has returned home after spending two weeks at Glen Rock, Pa., to take care of children whose mother fractured her wrist. They were former neighbors when the Rodney Burley family lived there.

Rev. and Mrs. David Knickerbocker and sons of Bradford, N. Y., were dinner guests July Fourth of her father, Francis Acker.

Miss Gail Tennant is attending summer school in Wellsville.

Mat Thompson returned to his home at Ellisburg, Pa., the last week of June. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Burd spent part of the last two weeks at their summer home at Ellisburg.

MARKET BASKET
MEANS Better FOOD!

HOME GROWN
Fresh Radishes
3 bunches 25c
Celery Hearts
29c bunch

$1.00 SALE
United Milk 8 - $1.00
Real Gold
Orange, Grape or Lemonade Base
6 for $1.00

GRANDMA BROWN
Baked Beans
4 for $1.00

BLUE PLATE
Cleaned Shrimp
3 for $1.00

M-B Bread 6 for $1.00
lb. Loaves

MANDALAY
Sliced Pineapple
5 for $1.00

Fresh Fryers
WHOLE, lb. 29c
CUT-UP, lb. 33c
Boneless TURKEY ROLLS, lb. 85c
STAR BOLOGNA, by piece, lb. 39c

Come In And Get Your FREE Copy of the New Top Value Catalogue

FINEST INTERIOR LATEX PAINT... REGAL WALL SATIN

- Goes on quick as a wink
- Dries in less than an hour
- Cleans up with soapy water
- No painty odor

Moore paints
BAKER'S HARDWARE
Andover, N.Y.