

Mrs. Jerry Joseph Harwood

The Blessed Sacrament Church of Andover was the setting Saturday morning, July 11, 1964 at 11 o'clock for the marriage of Miss Jean Ann Daley and Jerry Joseph Harwood of New Hartford. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Daley of 25 Elm St., and the late Victor O. Daley. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Harwood of New York City.

Nuptial vows for the double-ring ceremony were performed by the Rev. John R. Shea before an altar decorated with baskets of white lilies.

Organist Mrs. Anna Fisher accompanied soloist Miss Mary Ellen Smith as she rendered several wedding songs.

Given in marriage by her brother, Victor G. Daley of Tonawanda, the bride chose an informal bridal gown of white silk organza over taffeta fashioned in a sheath silhouette with removable overskirt. The fitted bodice featured a scooped neckline and three quarter-length sleeves. Alencon lace appliques and seed pearls enhaunched the neckline and front of the overskirt and her imported silk illusion veil was attached to a headpiece of miniature Alencon lace motifs, seed pearls, and cut crystals. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses with baby's breath and wore pearl earrings, gift of the groom.

The bride's sister, Miss Margaret Daley of Rochester, was maid-of-honor. She was gowned in a street-length sheath of powder blue Italian silk styled with a bodice of hand clipped lace appliques. She wore a matching lace hat with short veil, blue accessories and carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses.

Richard Scalzo of Utica acted as best man. James L. Cannon of Andover, cousin of the bride, was usher.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Daley chose a green suit, white ac-
