Rev. Roger Williams gave the Invocation and Benediction for the tureen supper at the Methodist Social Hall Thursday night. There were 55 in attendance to welcome Rev. and Mrs. Roger Williams and to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Neapass and family. The committee was Mrs. Walter Jackson, Mrs. Albert Lamphier, Miss Grace Young and Mrs. Laverne Stephens. Virgil Hussey and daughter, Cheryl sang a duet accompanied by Mrs. Hussey. Mr. Hussey, lay leader, spoke in behalf of the church, welcoming the new Pastor and his wife. He said the affairs of the church are running smoothly which means the people should work even harder to keep it so and to make it influence felt in the community. Rev. Williams responded and hoped the churches on the charge will work together and give mutual inspiration. Appreciation was given to the Neapass family. Miss Grace Young thanked Ruth for her cooperation in WSCS and Bible School. Mrs. Geraldine Lamphier thanked her for singing in the choir and thanked Ronald in behalf of the M.Y.F. for his work teaching the older group. Miss Gail Tennant spoke for the youth in his class and said they had benefited by his leadership. Mr. Neapass responded saying the family had made many friends in the church and community and would have many memories of their two years here. The program concluded with everyone singing "Blest Be The Tie That Binds".
