

Mrs. Richard O. Byndas

Miss Judith Ellen Baker of Hudson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Baker of Andover, was married Saturday, June 27, 1964 to Richard Owen Byndas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Byndas of Queens. The nuptial Mass was celebrated at 11:30 a. m. in St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church in Long Island City at 11:45 a. m.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a floor length gown of white silk organza. The bell shape skirt featured a wide band of Alencon lace and a chapel train. The sleeveless, scoop neck bodice was covered by a short jacket with elbow sleeves and a bateau neck, also trimmed with Alencon lace. Her circular fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls. Her cascade bouquet was of white orchids and stephanotis with white ribbon streamers.

The maid-of-honor, Miss Anne Church of Andover and Germantown, wore a floor length gown of white silk organza over pale blue taffeta. The bodice was self embroidered with small flowers. She wore a matching kerchief as a headpiece and carried a cascade bouquet of white chrysanthemums and pink roses.

Miss Carolyn Deane of Claverak, Miss Nancy Zastrow of Cleveland, Ohio and Miss Pamela Fischer of New York City were the bridesmaids. They wore gowns identical to the maid-of-honor and carried cascade bouquets of white chrysanthemums and red roses.

Miss Cathy-Meyer, Miss Martha Meyer of Jackson Heights, cousins of the groom, and Miss Marsha Baker of Andover, sister of the bride were flower girls. They wore floor length pale blue organza dresses made by the bride's mother. They featured lace trim on the bodice and wide blue sashes. Each carried a corsage bouquet of pink carnations and pink roses.

The mother of the bride wore a pink silk organza dress with white pink panels. Her accessories were pink and white and she wore a corsage of white orchids. The groom's mother wore a pale green lace dress with green and white accessories and white orchids.

The best man was Bruce Byndas of Long Island City, brother of the groom. The ushers were James Griener, New York City; Wilbur Palmer, Williamson; Edward Zuzick and Edward Wilhelm, Long Island City.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held for 150 guests at the Oyster Bay Long Island City. Immediately following the reception, the couple left for a trip to Massachusetts.

The bride is a graduate of Andover Central School, 1959 and Cornell University '63. She was a member of Alpha Xi Delta social sorority and the Cornell Chapter president. She is currently employed as a 4-H Club Agent in Columbia County.

Mr. Byndas was also graduated from Cornell University in 1963 where he was a member of Delta Chi fraternity. He is a faculty member at Woodmere Junior High North, Hewlett, Long Island where he teaches science.

Mr. and Mrs. Byndas will reside in the Hudson area until September when they move to Long Island.

Advice On Juvenile Delinquency

"There is no easy solution to the juvenile delinquency problem. Many factors contribute to delinquency—neglect of parents, a broken home, unsound background poor living conditions, economic deprivation and mental disturbance," according to Attorney General Louis J. Lefkowitz. "No single focused approach will solve the problem—but a stronger family is the best protection against delinquency," he added.
