

SOCIAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Isaman of Angelica had extensive fire damage to their home August 8th. The fire had evidently been smoldering for sometime. It is thought that lightning, during the early morning thunder shower struck an electric wire and followed it into the house, thereby triggering the pilot light of the gas floor furnace as the fire started around the furnace in the living room, burning an eight-foot hole in the floor and dropping the furnace into the crawl space below. The Isamans were not at home, having left the previous Wednesday for the World's Fair in New York City.

Want To See A Circus Parade

An old fashioned circus parade—just like in grandfather's day, will be an opening day feature of the Erie County Fair at Hamburg at 10 o'clock Saturday morning (August 22nd). Gay circus wagon cages of the James E. Strates Shows will rumble through Hamburg village streets with lions, tigers and jungle beasts. Elephants in gay trappings will plod behind the wagons. The many acts of the Swenson Auto Thrillcade and circus—the opening day grandstand spectacle, will contribute more animals, pretty aerialists and traditional circus personalities.

Units will form in Legion Field and march in Evans Street to Main Street to Buffalo Street to Clark Street to McKinley Parkway and enter the Fairgrounds at the McKinley gate.

The 125th Annual Erie County Fair opens August 22nd and continues through August 29th.

I desire to express my most profound gratitude to the Andover relatives, neighbors and friends for their many acts of kindness and sympathy shown me at the sudden death of my husband Stephen C. Kish of 327 Somerset St., Alpha, New Jersey; also for the beautiful floral tributes, cards, and personal letters.
