Four County Welfare Employees Honored

Twenty employees and guests gathered to honor four employees of the Allegany County Department of Public Welfare, Tuesday evening, August 25th with a farewell dinner at the Hotel Wellsville, Wellsville.

The honored guests were Mrs. Arlene McNinch, Mrs. Janet Stebbins, Mrs. Dorothea Bergerson and Miss Marguerite Wightman.

Mrs. Bergerson is continuing her education at Alfred University, working toward her Master's degree in Psychology. She is a graduate of the New York School of Social Work and has her Bachelor's degree from Cornell University. She has been employed as Case Supervisor of Child Welfare of Allegany County for 12 years.

Mrs. McNinch plans to attend the New York State University at Geneseo, in preparation for a career in teaching. She has been an employee of the Welfare Department for nearly 8 years.

Mrs. Stebbins plans to remain home as a full time housekeeper after 9 years of employment with the Department.

Following 20 years of service in Allegany County, Miss Wightman has accepted a position in Steuben County as Case Supervisor of Public Assistance, similar to the position held in Allegany County for the past 9 years. Previous to this she was a Case Worker for 11 years. She has a Bachelor's degree in Education obtained from Buffalo State University and a Master's degree in Education with a major in Sociology obtained at St. Bonaventure University.
