

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon H. Barber

The marriage of Miss Linda Diane Kemp and Vernon Harold Barber was solemnized in a double ring ceremony at the Andrew Settlement Baptist Church, August 8, 1964.

The Rev. W. Buchanan performed the 1 o'clock ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of assorted gladioli, gift of the bride's grandparents.

Traditional wedding music was rendered by organist Miss Eunice Dudley.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kemp, 40 Grove Street, Andover and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Selin Barber of R.D. 1 Genesee.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a plain, floor length gown of taffeta which she made, fashioned with a semi-scoop neckline and long pointed sleeves, the gown was accented with a cummerbund which went into a bow in the back with long streamers. A small chapel train fell from the bell-shaped skirt.

Her finger-tip veil which was held by a crown of baby pearls, was first worn by the groom's sister.

The bride carried a white Bible adorned with yellow roses, ferns and streamers which held jilts of the valley. A strand of gold beads left to the bride by her grandmother, was her only jewelry.

The groom's sister, Mrs. Alvin Ingalls of Genesee, acted as matron-of-honor. Attired in a light brown dress which featured a double-breasted look, she wore white accessories. Her corsage was of baby pink carnations.

William Barber, Genesee, acted as best man for his brother.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Kemp chose a beige brocade dress, with red accessories, and a gladioli corsage completed her ensemble. Mrs. Barber chose a suit which included a black dress with a flowered jacket. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of sweet peas.

A reception was held at 2:30 p. m. in the basement of the church for about 100 guests.

Hostess Mrs. Carol Burdick of Andover, served the three-tiered wedding cake which featured small pillars holding each layer of the cake, large wedding bells, and a miniature bride and groom on the top. The cake was made by Mrs. John Parker of Portville, N. Y. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Rob't Downing, the bride's aunt of Wappingers Falls, N. Y., and the groom's cousin, Miss Judy Greiner of Port Allegany. Miss Amy Lou Brown of Rochester attended the guest book.

Mrs. Barber attended Andover Central School. Her husband attended Northern Potter Joint
