Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Sekell of Rock Creek Road, Greenwood, captured 19 prizes with 28 entries at the Bath Fair. Mr. Sekell with four entries in the Farm Products Department was awarded first for a sheaf of white oats; first place for early dent silage corn and second place for medium to late season silage corn. He was also awarded a first for his collection of farm crop seeds and sheaves. Mrs. Sekell had entries in both the needle work and culinary departments. In the needle work department she received first for a neat and practiceable house dress; a woolen garment made from cast off clothing and a child's dress. She was also awarded top prize for a crocheted tablecloth. In the culinary department Mrs. Sekell received first premiums for baked brown bread; blackberry pie; chocolate layer cake; angel food cake; brownies; and rolled sugar cookies. Her second place awards included: apple pie; cherry pie; pumpkin pie; baking powder biscuits and peanut butter cookies.

The regular meeting of the Allegany County Sub-District No. 19-A of the Dairymen's League will be held Monday, Sept. 14, at 8:30 p. m. in the Belfast Grange Hall. This is the Annual Meeting and Membership Contest.

Livestock and machinery were lost early Wednesday as flames destroyed a large hay-filled barn on the Hardy's Corner Rd., about a mile south of Rushford. Mrs. Max Waite, wife of the barn's owner, said about 40 unregistered Holstein cattle, a valuable horse and numerous farm machines, including a grain elevator were lost in the blaze, which was discovered about 5:40 a. m. by a hired man who was assisting in mucking chores. The horse was half of a team used in a horse pulling contest at the local Labor Day festivities. Its partner was rescued, along with about 60 more head of cattle.

The U.S. Senate has confirmed the appointments of Andrew J. (Jack) Burr, Jr., and Glen (Pike) Freeborough as postmasters of Scio and Allentown, respectively. Mr. Burr, 40, succeeds Acting Postmaster Wilbur Palmer, who has served since December 1962. Mr. Freeborough succeeds C. E. McClintock, Jr., who has been acting in that capacity since Nov. 23, 1962.

Andover Volunteer Firemen were called out about 4 p. m. Saturday to control flames in a trailer about four miles east on Route 21. The unidentified owner of the furniture, said he was hauling the load from Rochester. The contents of the trailer were destroyed and extensive damage to the trailer.

We note that Miss Mary White of Dyke St., Wellsville is a patient in the Jones Memorial Hospital.

The Presbyterian Women's Organization will hold their first dinner-meeting following the summer recess Tuesday, Sept. 15 at 6:30 at the church dining room. Mrs. Ila Snyder, assisted by Mrs. Cora Burdick, Mrs. Shirley Thorpy, Mrs. Marco Conde, Mrs. Theima Mastars and Mrs. Clara Lang are in charge of the dinner.

The following named persons were duly drawn to serve as Grand Jurors and Trial Jurors at a Term held in Belmont, September 28th. Grand Jurors: Avery Mead and Richard L. Spicer of Independence; Trial Jurors: Jessie Baker, Herman Darwin Lehman; Burton D. Billings and Rodney C. Horton, both of Independence.

Mrs. William F. Joyce entertained the members of the Entre Nous Club at a 7:30 bridge dinner at her home Thursday evening. Honors were presented to Mrs. Fay Boyd and Mrs. Lynn Trowbridge.

The Hi Herald

Editorial

by Jean DeRemer

Welcome back to another school year. And a hearty welcome to all the new teachers, practice teachers, and students.

Another year is upon us, and with it, a new chance to do better than we did last year. Now is the time to resolve ourselves that we will do better. But only if we are serious.

The Hi Herald will be active again this year to present the news and to be enjoyed. Why not read it this year?

Two Assemblies

The students of ACS will enjoy two assemblies next week. On Monday morning, September 14, at nine o'clock the McAleer Marionettes will present John Ruskin's immortal classic, "The King of the Golden River".

On Friday, September 18, at three o'clock Dr. Kurt D. Singer, internationally famous expert on espionage and sabotage, will present a program. He has returned recently from a three-months trip covering 35,000 miles including trouble spots of the world. He visited among others the USSR, Malaya, Laos, Hong-Kong, India, Cylon, Vietnam, The Philippines, Korea and Japan.

Reception Given By Board Of Education

The Board of Education held their annual reception for all faculty members, their wives and husbands, and staff members on Tuesday evening in the school cafeteria.

Faculty Picnic

The Faculty Picnic was held on Wednesday evening, September 9, at the rear of the school. Kenneth Overslaugh served as chairman with all men faculty members helping him.
