Miss Shirley Ann Hoyt, daughter of Richard Hoyt of Hornell, R. D., became the bride of Douglas H. Kimble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kimble of Troupsburg at a 2 p. m. service in the Methodist Church, Saturday, September 12, 1964.

The Rev. Roger Williams performed the double ring ceremony before the altar decorated with two beautiful vases of white pom-poms and gladioli. Mrs. June Rollins was organist and Miss Barbara Lamphier was soloist singing, "Because" and "O Promise Me", before the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" after the service.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. She wore a floor length gown of lace over taffeta, styled with fitted bodice, long sleeves and scalloped neckline. Her skirt was in tiers of lace ruffles over hoops. A pearl tiara held her elbow-length veil and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Gail Smith, G.C.S., classmate, was maid-of-honor, wearing a floor length, deep rose gown and matching headpiece. Mrs. Esther Pierce and Miss Marilyn Drake Aunts of the bride, were bridesmaids, wearing street length deep rose gowns. They all carried bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Teri June Rollins and Cheryl Tymel, niece of the bridegroom were flower girls, dressed in pink carrying baskets of flowers. Merle Campbell was ringbearer, Paul Kimble of Bath, was best man for his brother. David Paul, a classmate from Troupsburg Central School and David Kimble, another brother of the bridegroom, were ushers.

A reception for about 100 guests was held in the church hall following the ceremony served by Mrs. Louise VanSkiver, Mrs. Alberta Hawkins and Mrs. Barbara Hawkins. The bride's table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature church and wedding party.

The bride is a June graduate from Greenwood Central School and the bridegroom from Troupsburg Central School. The couple will live on a farm at Woodbury, R. D.

Dinner was served to about 50 guests from Hornell, Arkport, Canisteo, Avoca, Hills, Jasper and Greenwood: Mrs. Marjorie Herrick and Mrs. Lillian Gratto assisted the hostess. Mrs. Herrick made the three-tiered anniversary cake topped with a miniature bride and groom and wedding bell. Each tier was separated by four pillars and decorated with roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were married April 30, 1928. They have four daughters: Mrs. Ronald House of Avoca; Mrs. Robert Scheithauer of Hills; Mrs. James Jackson of Hornell, R. D.; and Mrs. Louis McIntosh of Arkport, all present with their families. They also have one son, Karl Smith of Arkport, who was not present with his family. They have twenty-two grandchildren.

Mrs. Maryella Baker and Arthur Crain of Canisteo were married at eleven o'clock Saturday morning, September 5, 1964 in Canisteo. A double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Eddie Husted, a substitute pastor at the Canisteo Baptist Church, at his home on Depot Street.

Attendants for the couple were her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Miles E. Kenyon of Whitesville. The bride wore a Kelly green wool dress with matching accessories and Mrs. Kenyon wore a light blue jersey dress with matching accessories.

The bride was a former employee of the Greenwood Bank for over 30 years and has been retired for five years. Her husband was employed as head Custodian at Canisteo Central School for over 25 years, retiring on March of this year.

They will make their home at 59 Russell St., Canisteo. For the present they are living at her home in Greenwood while he is making alterations and some redecorating at his home. The Crains plan a trip to Ohio to visit his son, Douglas and family.
