Elm Valley Poles The Elm Valley Poles held their second meeting Saturday, Sept. 19th at the home of our leader, Leona Glover.

There were nine members and two leaders present. The President Elaine Burch opened the business meeting. At that time our leader gave each member Fire Prevention blanks. Each member who received these blanks will go to someone's house and inspect it for fire hazards.

We sang a song which was led by our song leader, Marie Wahl, said the Pledge of Allegiance, and said the 4-H Pledge.

After the meeting was adjourned we had our first cooking lesson. We made different kinds of drinks and cocktails including cherryade, grape punch and tomato cocktail. We also made cherry betty and bouillon soup. Everyone enjoyed drinking the juices and eating the cherry betty. This lesson was for the older 4-H girls.

The next lesson will be the A.B.C.'s of Cooking for the first year members Saturday, Sept. 26 at the home of our leader Leona Glover from 1 to 4 p. m.
