

SOCIAL NOTES

We are glad to report that Ernest Higby has improved in health and able to enjoy a few short motor rides.

Wilmer Atwell attended the annual recognition of employees for length of service in the Air Preheater company's Old Timers Clam Bake held at the Wellsville Rod & Gun Club, Saturday, Sept. 12th. Ralph Miles and Carl Monroe were among the group which included 15 years service and Richard Stinson in the 10 year group. The company honored the ladies with a steak dinner at the Passet Hotel on the same day.

We note that Marshall E. Gornsey of Hornell was admitted to the Bethesda Hospital Monday night.

Mrs. Alvin Hoover entertained the members of the Entre Nous Club at a 7:30 dessert bridge at her home Thursday evening. Mrs. Leo Snyder and Mrs. William F. Joyce won the honors.

Mrs. Max Richardson entertained the Entre Nous Club at a 7:30 dessert bridge at her home Tuesday evening. Honors were presented Mrs. Alvin Hoover and Mrs. John Oakes.

Mr. and Mrs. Herald Ford and family have returned this week to their home on Main St., after spending the Summer at their summer home on Joyce Hill.

Andover friends are glad to hear that John Regan, nephew of Mrs. Max Richardson is recovering nicely from his recent illness and will be able to return to work Monday.

Mrs. Beth Sanders, the former Beth Baker, who once resided in Andover, entered the Memorial Hospital at Albany, N. Y. Monday as a surgical patient. She is the sister of Mrs. Sylvester Pelton, of Andover.

Youths who attended Boys' State at Colgate University, which included Steve Baker, Maple St., were guests at the September Meeting of the sponsoring Alleghany County American Legion, held at Belfast, Thursday.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. DeRemer of 59 North Main Street, Andover, New York, announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Mae to Douglas Donald Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Miller of Mt. Union, Pennsylvania.

A winter wedding is being planned.
