Honored At Bridal Shower

Miss Barbara Pelton was the guest of honor at a bridal shower held at the home of Mrs. Lelia Livermore on Baker St., Saturday evening.

The house was decorated for the occasion with blue, white and pink crepe paper. White bells and an umbrella were hung over a gift table completing the decorations.

Mrs. Lelia Livermore and Mrs. Lawrence Corwin, co-hostess of the evening entertained the guests with games. Prizes were presented to the bride-to-be by the winners.

Refreshments of gingerbread with lemon whip, punch, coffee, tea, candy and nuts were served by the hostesses after the entertainment.

Miss Pelton was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

There were approximately 27 guests in attendance with out-of-town guests present from Wellsville, Bolivar, Painted Post, Erwins, Rushford, Canisteo and Belmont.

Everybody knows how to express a complaint, but few can utter a graceful compliment. It's a matter of practice.
