Appreciation

I wish to thank the relatives, neighbors and friends for the many acts of kindness extended to me and my husband during my recent accident. For the gifts, flowers, food and also the visitations; to my sister, Mrs. Helen Rogers; to the unknown parties who released the telephone service so we could reach the doctors, the thoughtfulness is greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Howard Brewster

Hornell Symphony To Present Concert Sunday

The Hornell Symphony Orchestra will present a John F. Kennedy Memorial Concert Sunday evening, November 22, at 8:15 P. M., in the Hornell Senior High School auditorium.

This concert, dedicated to our late President, comes one year to the week that the orchestra presented its first concert of the 1963-64 season. That concert, it will be remembered, was also in tribute to the memory of President Kennedy.

Glenn L. Sprague, conductor of the orchestra, has announced the program for the November 22 concert. The orchestra opens with the brilliant "Egmont Overture, Opus 84," by Ludwig van Beethoven, followed by "Fugue in G Minor (the Shorter)," by Bach-Stokowski. Franz Schubert's "Symphony No. 5 in Bb Major" is the concert's major work. The "Masquerade Suite," by Aram Khatchaturian, is programmed next. The concert concludes with selections from the American folk opera "Porgy and Bess" by George Gershwin.

Fourteen western New York communities are represented in this year's orchestra of 57 members. Of this total number 49 are full-time members. The orchestra is supplemented by eight professional musicians, seven from Rochester and one from Angola.
