Tower Elected President Of MH Board of Directors

Michael Tower of Belmont was elected president of the Allegany County Medical Health Association board of directors, succeeding Gerald Seen of Cuba.

Selected to serve with him were the Rev. Russch Chan, vice president; Mrs. Lewis Neely, secretary; and Earl Miller, treasurer, all of Wellsville.

The out-going president was chosen for a three-year term on the board, as were Harold Babcock, Mrs. James Randall, Mrs. William Attwood, Mrs. Reginald Sootheran and Ralph M. Tompkins.

Unanimous approval was given to a proposal by President Tower that six MHA units, or chapters, be established within the county. Boundaries indicated on a map submitted by Mr. Tower will include: Area I—Fillmore, Houghton, Caneadea, Rushford and Belfast; Area II—Rockville, Cuba, Friendship, Nile, West Clarksville; Area III—Angelia, Phillips Creek, Belmont, Scio; Area IV—

Almond, Alfred Station, Alfred; Area V—Richburg, Bolivar, Alletown; Area VI—Andover, Wellsville, Whitesville.

Upon recommendation of Mrs. Edward Briggs, the token remuneration for doctors assisting in the Mental Health Clinic was raised from $10 to $15. The clinic, operated Mondays from 7 to 10 p. m., is free to patients, some of whom make donations to the cause, according to Mrs. Briggs.

It was announced that Mr. Seen had been elected by the New York

State Mental Health Association Board to serve as a regional director—delegate representing Allegany, Chautauqua, Steuben and Cattaraugus counties.

Mrs. Louis Eltscher of Houghton consented to serve as a local director, filling in a vacancy with two years remaining to the term. Her appointment brought the board's strength to its full 18-man complement.
