

Mrs. Leo Davis

Mrs. Mabel Grace Davis, Barney St., died Sunday, December 20, 1964, in the Bethesda Hospital following a short illness.

A resident of Andover for the past 45 years, she was the daughter of George and Elva Lee Burdick, born February 12, 1895 at West Union and resided in Whitesville prior to her marriage to Leo Davis May 31, 1919.

She was a past member of the Andover Rebekah Lodge, also a member of the Universalist Church in Whitesville.

Surviving are her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Lawrence Goodridge (Maxine) of Elm Valley, Mrs. Robert Cornell (Marjorie) Hardy Hill, Andover, Mrs. Donald Peer (Agnes) of Jordan; three sons, Louis of Elm Valley, Richard of Hill St., Andover, and Charles of Akron, Ohio and a sister, Mrs. Otis Butler of Ft. Pierce, Florida; also nine grandchildren and one great grandchild and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held this Wednesday afternoon at the James B. Mulholland Funeral Home, Church St., with the Rev. Willis V. Poole officiating. Burial was in Hillside Cemetery, Andover.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McClure of Andover, New York, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Ann to Gordon Paul Whitehouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon P. Whitehouse of Ashford, Conn.

Miss McClure is a graduate of Andover Central School and has been attending the University of Hartford.

Her fiance is in his Junior year at the University of Connecticut.

A September wedding is being planned

Honored At Bridal Shower

Miss Laura Burdick was honored at a variety shower held at the Andover Presbyterian Church parlors Thursday evening following the rehearsal of the Sanctuary Choir. Dainty refreshments were served by the Women's Organization and the honored guest was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

Miss Burdick's marriage to Theodore Foster is planned in the near future.

Appreciation

I wish to thank all those who sent gifts and cards, also to those who visited me while I was in the hospital.

Gregory Shellman

Mary J. Dean

Mary (May) J. Dean died in a hospital at Phoenix, Arizona, Monday, December 21, 1964 as a result of injuries sustained in an automobile accident which occurred on the evening of December 12th.

Miss Dean, a registered nurse was born in Aiken, Pa., the daughter of William and Margaret O'Leary, Dean. During her adult life her time and efforts were given to mankind thru her profession.

She is survived by four brothers: Paul of Lawrenceville, Ill., William of Philadelphia, Pa., Louis and Howard of Andover; a sister, Miss Lenore Dean of Wellsville and several nieces and nephews.

The body is expected to arrive in Buffalo by plane Wednesday night and will be taken to the James B. Mulholland Funeral on Church St., where friends may call beginning Thursday at 2 o'clock.

A Prayer Service will be held at the Funeral Home at 9:30 a. m. Saturday followed by 10 a. m. services at the Andover Blessed Sacrament Church with Rev. John R. Shea officiating. Burial will be in Gate of Heaven Cemetery, Andover.

Appreciation

I would like to express my appreciation to all those who sent cards and gifts while I was a patient at the Jones Memorial and Syracuse Memorial Hospitals. Also a special thanks to those who furnished transportation and for the acts of kindness in assisting us at home during my illness and convalescence.

Kearby Hames

Gregory Shellman, a medical patient in the St. James Mercy Hospital, returned to his home Friday.

Mrs. Lena Rice returned home Friday from the Jones Memorial Hospital where she was a medical patient.

Mrs. Niels Nelson, a medical patient in the Jones Memorial Hospital, returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Mae Whitford, mother of Mrs. Richard Stinson, was admitted to the Bethesda Hospital Sunday for treatment of a fractured pelvic bone sustained in a fall in her home in Alfred Station.

Infant John Joyce, a medical patient in the St. James Mercy Hospital, returned to his home Sunday.

Mrs. Lulu Emery was admitted to the Jones Memorial Hospital Monday to receive X-rays and treatment for an injury sustained in a fall three weeks previous.

Library News

Memorials

A Record — Beverly Kenney — "Born To Be Blue", given by Nora Halsey in memory of Frank Halsey.

A Book — Napoleon Hill — "Think And Grow Rich", given by Mr. and Mrs. Herald Ford in memory of Carl A. Armstrong of Boulder, Colo., son of Mrs. Evelyn Lynton.

Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Niles Sherman announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol Ann to William E. Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Snyder of Almond, N. Y. A Spring wedding is planned.

Appreciation

I would like to thank all those who sent me cards, flowers and other remembrances while I was in the hospital. It was wonderful to be remembered and are greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Lera Rice

Appreciation

Thanks to everyone who sent me cards since my accident. It was greatly appreciated.

Penny Hames

New Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hulse of Belmont are the parents of a son born Wednesday, December 16, 1964. Mr. and Mrs. Clair Hulse are the paternal grandparents and Mrs. Leonard Reisman is the maternal grandmother.

Christmas giving in England dates from the reign of Henry VII when Christmas boxes and New Year gifts were a common enactment of royalty from their subjects.

There are Scandinavian, French and ancient Egyptian legends which claim to have given the Christmas tree to the world. The first authentic mention of a Christmas tree is of one in Strasbourg, Germany, 1605.

Notice To Owners Of Harbors Of Dogs

The law requires this year that all dog licenses be obtained by January 1, 1965.

All puppies running at large, regardless of age must be licensed.

GLENORA PELTON, Town Clerk
Town of Andover, N. Y.

Use the Classified Ad Section

Boost Your Home Town!

Dr. J. ROBERT COMMON

To Our Patrons

Greetings

and Good Wishes

It is a pleasure at this Holiday time to wish you much happiness!

THE SUGAR BOWL
John Karcanes

YULETIDE WISHES

Courtney
Liquor Store

Season's Best to All have a happy Christmas!

BAKER'S HARDWARE

Andover, N. Y.