

Greenwood News Cont.

Young, and Mrs. Mary T. Young were Christmas dinner guests of Miss Sabrey Stephens.

Mrs. Anna Wood went to Andover Thursday and spent Christmas with her niece, Miss Margaret Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. William McDonough went to Belmont Thursday to spend Christmas with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Canty.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fisher and family were hosts for her family Christmas dinner Friday. Guests were Mrs. Mary Streeter, Mrs. Lewis Cornell, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Streeter, Robert and Roger Streeter, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Holt and daughters, Pamela and Laurie and Mr. and Mrs. Clair Cornell and three children.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Waters had Christmas breakfast with their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Glover and children.

Miss Emily Barney and Mrs. Marian Dietrich were Christmas dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hanbach and family.

Miller-DeRemer

The Andover Methodist Church was the setting Saturday, December 5, for the marriage of Miss Nancy Mae DeRemer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo DeRemer of N. Main St., and Douglas Donald Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer F. Miller of R. D. 1, Mount Union, Pa.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Roger Williams, before an altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli and pink carnations. Organist Mrs. Ralph Burgett played "The Wedding Prayer", "Oh, Promise Me", and other traditional wedding selections.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a street-length gown of white satin. The bodice which was embellished with beads and pearls, featured a sweetheart neckline and long pointed sleeves.

Her elbow-length veil was attached to a double-tiara of pearls and rhinestones and she carried a spray of white carnations. Her gift from the groom was a pearl pendant.

Miss Linda DeRemer, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her street-length gown of moiré blue satin was fashioned with a circular neckline, long sleeves and a full skirt. She wore a tiara of pearls and carried a spray of white carnations tipped with blue. Her outfit was complemented by a pearl pendant, gift of the bride.

Best man was Roger Wesche of Wellsville.

The bride's mother chose a two-piece navy blue dress and the groom's mother chose a two-piece lilac dress. Both wore black accessories and white rose corsages.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for approximately 75 guests was held in the VFW Club in Wellsville. Assisting hostesses were Mrs. Harold Joyce, First St., Miss Judy Brundage of Grove St., and Miss Carol Sherman of Rochambeau Ave. Miss Diana Miles of Greenwood St., attended the guest book.

Pink and white steamers, white bells and baskets of pink carnations and white gladioli decorated the club. The four-tiered wedding was ornamented with pink and white rose and swan pillars and was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Out-of-town guests attended from Wellsville, Greenwood, Ithaca, Whitesville, Rochester and Mt. Union, Pa.

For a tour of the southern states the bride selected a blue wool sheath, black accessories and a corsage of red and white roses.

The bride is a 1960 graduate of Andover Central School. She will continue to be employed at the Texas Hot Restaurant, Wellsville. The groom graduated from Captain Jack High, Mt. Union, in 1960, and served three years in the US Navy. He is employed by Brenan and Sloan Inc., Painted Post.

The bride was feted at variety showers given by Linda DeRemer and Carol Sherman and Joyce Armstrong, Sonia Seeley, Ginny Coyle and Bev Bledsoe. A bridal dinner was given at the Big Elms Restaurant in Hornell by Linda DeRemer and a rehearsal party was given by Roger Wesche.

The couple is residing at the Stannards Trailer Court.

STEUBEN SILK MILLS

Happy New Year

We hope that it's a lucky one for you!

MARGARET'S RESTAURANT

Herman and Marie Koehler

H. H. WILLIAMS CO.

wishing you special joys, with your loved ones, throughout 1965.

Henry Stephens Insurance Agency

Here's to your good health, good luck, and happiness during the New Year ahead!

R. J. Sootheran

May good friends, good health be yours!

Gerald Mullen T.V. Service Andover, N. Y.