

SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. F. G. Crawford entertained the members of the Entre Nous Club at a bridge dessert at her home on Pleasant Ave. Thursday evening. Honors were presented to Mrs. Elwin Hoover and Mrs. Max Richardson. Mrs. George Carpenter was the honored guest.

Twenty-two cars of an Erie-Lackawanna Railroad freight train derailed at Belfast about 8:30 Friday morning on the line's Mahoning fourth subdivision, the former Allegany Division. None of the train crew was injured. The derailment occurred as the result of mechanical failure of one of the cars and tore up 1,000 feet of the right of way. Meanwhile, freight trains were being rerouted over the passenger route through Andover and Wellsville the forepart of the week.

In the twenty-five years ago column published in the Hornell Evening Tribune, the following item was of interest. January 14, 1940—Thirteen Allegany County young men registered at the office of County Commissioner of Public Welfare, Dr. Ivan G. Howe, and were taken to the CCC Camp at Castle, following enlistment for six years.

Dr. Melvin H. Bernstein, professor of English and chairman of the Civilization Department at Alfred University, is the author of the book, "John Jay Chapman" which has just been released by Twayne Publishers of New York.

The former farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Conrad of Rexville, now owned by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harkenrider, was destroyed by fire Friday. Francis White, assistant chief of the Troupsburg Fire Department, said no one was injured in the blaze but that some small farm equipment was lost. The probable cause of the blaze was listed by fire officials as sparks left from the thawing of frozen water pipes between the living quarters attached to the joining 40 by 200 foot barn.
