

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

Saturday evening, March 13 the Greenwood Girl Scout Troop held a dinner and record hop at the Fire Hall. Parents and friends were invited and approximately sixty attended. A short program preceded the dinner in honor of Girl Scout Week. The Leader, Mrs. James Murphy and Cadets planned the event and Junior Scouts helped set the tables and serve.

The girls began selling Girl Scout Cookies Monday.

The Greenwood Volunteer Firemen's Auxiliary elected Mrs. Louise Nye President at the recent organization meeting. Other officers were: Mrs. Evelyn Cornell as Vice President; Mrs. Patricia Adderly, Secretary and Mrs. Florence Hardenbergh as Treasurer. The meetings will be the second Monday of each month at the Fire Hall. The next meeting April 12 will be open to the public for a lesson on the use of the Resuscitator. Members of the Andover Firemen's Auxiliary have been invited to be guests. The Auxiliary is still taking members.

Greenwood Grange held a special meeting Saturday night, Mar. 20th to confer the 1st and 2nd degrees on five candidates. The regular March meeting was Saturday, March 13th. Gary Swan State President of the Future Farmers of America was the guest speaker. A Molasses Cookies Contest was held with eight entries. Judges, Mrs. Ellen Banks and Mrs. Grace Woodworth, awarded First Prize to Mrs. John Rogers. Mrs. Franklyn Krusen, Secretary, reports that Mrs. Eunice Roe, Pomonona Lecturer will be the honored guest at the next meeting April 10. Members of Hartsville, Canistota and Big Creek Granges will also be guests. The Lecturers of these Granges will present a program on this year's theme, "Grange Horizon Illimitable".

The Altar and Rosary Society of St. Mary's Catholic Church of Rexville sponsored a St. Pat's Dance at Greenwood Central School Wednesday night. Music was furnished by the Driftwood Boys. There was a good attendance despite the snow storm.

Mrs. Louise Ahearn, Cancer Chairman at Greenwood arranged a meeting for women at Greenwood Central School Wednesday night, March 24th at 8 o'clock. Two short movies were shown concerning Cancer in women, namely "Time and Two Women" and "BSE". Mrs. Milton Palmer of Hornell, District Secretary of American Cancer Society, was present, accompanied by a guest who discussed the films with the women.

Mrs. Harriet Redmond is one of three teachers at Canistota Central School to be a delegate to The Great Issues Conference this week-end at Alfred Ag-Tech School.

Over 30 attended the Lenten Service at the Methodist Church Thursday night. Rev. John Brewster of Canistota spoke about the individual Christian and how does he advertise Christianity. Robert Henshaw sang a solo "The Holy City" accompanied by his wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton York and daughter, Judy of Hornell attended services at the Methodist Church Sunday.

An Edition of the Central School Newspaper, "The Fulcrum" was published last week.

The Music Department will present the Spring Concert this Friday night, March 26th at 8 p. m. at the School. Mrs. June Rollins, Music Teacher, will direct groups of: Girls' Choir, Girls' Ensemble, 5th and 6th Girls' Ensemble, Junior Band, Trumpet Trio, Baritone Trio and Senior Band, featuring the Majorettes. A Bake Sale will follow the Concert to add funds for the band.

The Junior High All-County Festival was held March 19 - 20 at Hammondsport Central School. Participants from G. C. S. were:

Kathy Koehler, 1st Chair 1st Cornet in the Band and Marq Sky, Diana Hyland, soprano; Pamela Higgins and Glenna McCaffery, alto in the Chorus. The Concert for the public was Saturday night after combined rehearsals.

The Senior High All-County Festival will be held April 9 - 10 at Haverling Central School, Bath. Participants from G.C.S. are: Sandra Green, 1st Chair 1st Baritone; Connie Murphy, Alto Clarinet in Blue Band; Suzanne Kernan, Carolyn Bassett, Soprano; Joanne Hanbach and Debora Teribury, Alto in the Chorus.

The 1965 G.C.S. Triple Terrace Yearbook was published in March and recently distributed by the Senior Class. This year the class dedicated the book to Mr. Jay Bangs, Guidance Counselor. Mr. Bangs was advisor for the Seniors in their Freshmen and Sophomore years. Class advisor the last two years has been George Tubbs who was recently appointed Vice Principal of the School.

Sheldon Atherton, Agriculture Teacher at G.C.S. since February 1st, has announced his engagement to Miss Valerie Smith of Canistota. He graduated from Cornell University Agriculture College in January.

Lynn Redmond, student at Allegheny College at Meadville, Pa., arrived home Wednesday night for a ten-day between term vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Redmond of West Greenwood.

Students at Alfred Ag-Tech having between term vacations are: Diane Woodward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Woodward; Roger Williamson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Williamson; Harlan Warriner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Warriner, S.; and Stanley Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith.

Miss Donna Wallace, student at Erie Technical School, Williams-ville, is having between term vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wallace.

Word was received Sunday afternoon of the sudden death of George Teribury, 52, of Buffalo from a heart attack. He was the son of Franz Teribury of Greenwood and the late Orissa Teribury. Mr. Teribury and another son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Teribury of Canistota went to Buffalo. The funeral was planned for Wednesday afternoon at Buffalo. The Teribury family lived on a farm at West Greenwood when George was born.

Mrs. Rodney Burley, President of the Woman's Division of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, reported a meeting at the Church Tuesday night. The ladies planned to give the Church a Spring cleaning.

Since the closing of the Foote Nursing Home in Canistota, Mrs. Bertha Zeh was transferred to the Harris Nursing Home in Hornell. Mrs. Zeh is the mother of Mrs. Carol Bassett. Mrs. Myra Scribner was transferred to the County Hospital in Angelica. She was a native of Greenwood and a former resident of Andover.

Miss Jayne Krusen spent last week-end in Buffalo visiting her sister, Miss Donna Krusen who is a student at State University College at Buffalo. Recently Miss Elaine Navarra of Watertown was a guest of her classmate Miss Donna Krusen at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Franklyn Krusen of Greenwood.

Mrs. Christine Waters and Mrs. Dorothy Fuller, local Beauticians attended a recent meeting of the Southern Tier Association at the Mall on the Greene, Painted Post.

Mrs. Harriet Redmond and Mrs. Blanche Goodno attended a concert of the Canistota Central School orchestra last Friday night. One of Mrs. Redmond's Fifth Grade pupils was on the program.

Mrs. M. B. Wheeler was the guest of relatives at Hammondsport Tuesday to Friday and overnight at Weston.

Mrs. Pearl Bassett spent Wednesday to Friday night at Stephens Mills with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Burley.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lamphier spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Claude Daggett at Delevan.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Canty of Belmont were supper-guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McDonough, Friday.

Births

March 11: To Mr. and Mrs. Harold Tompkins, Belmont, a son.

March 16: To Mr. and Mrs. Robert Owen, Wellsville, a son.

March 16: To Mr. and Mrs. Albert Howard, Black Creek, a daughter.

March 17: To Mr. and Mrs. Devere White, Wellsville, a son.

March 17: To Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Gill, Genesee, Pa. a daughter.

March 18: To Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, Wellsville, a daughter.

March 20: To Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hunt of Genesee, Pa., a daughter.

March 20: To Mr. and Mrs. John Windus, Scio, a son.

March 22: To Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Cady, Wellsville, a daughter.

March 22: To Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas PeCone, Cuba, a son.

March 23: To Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Chapman, Friendship, a son.

March 23: To Mr. and Mrs. Edward Palmer, Wellsville, a son.

Deaths

Rev. Harold Gonter, 72, formerly of Wellsville, March 16. Two brothers and a sister survive.

Mrs. Robert Murphy, 68, Bolivar, March 17. Her husband, four sons, a daughter and two sisters survive.

Mrs. Leo Washburn, 80, Belmont, March 16. A daughter, a sister and a brother survive.

Master Larry Burch, 4, Richburg, March 18. His parents, two sisters and a brother survive.

Charles Dayton, 94, Fillmore, March 16. Several nieces and nephews survive.

Mrs. Floyd Mehlenbacher 59, Angelica, March 19. Her husband a son, a daughter, a brother and a sister survive.

Mrs. Carl Steenrod, Belmont, 78, March 19. A son, two brothers, and two sisters survive.

Mrs. Ernest Mathewson, 75, Scio, March 19. Two sons, a daughter and three brothers survive.

Mrs. J. G. Bloomster, 54, Fillmore, March 17. Her husband, a daughter, her mother, one sister, and a brother survive.

Oliver Cleghorn 68, Cuba, Mar. 18. Three sisters and two brothers survive.

James Law, 61, Genesee, March 21. His wife and a son survive.

William D. Baker, 56, Little Genesee, March 21. His wife, a brother and three sisters survive.

Marriages

March 12: Miss Rena Morrison, Wellsville to Earland Kailbourne, Wellsville.

March 13: Miss Marq J. Karr, Scio, to William R. Schubmehl of Vestal.

The BIG ELMS Restaurant
 Open 7 Days Per Week — 7 A. M. to 12 P. M.
 "DINE OUT FOR A TREAT"
 FULL COURSE DINNERS DAILY
 Private Dining Room For Parties
 Bring The Entire Family
 196 Seneca St. Hornell, N. Y.

Shagmoor loves the soft, feminine line.

Slashed pockets and notched collar sets off the very continental, tweedy look of this coat. Misses sizes, 8-20, Petite sizes, 4-16, $59.00

OTHER COATS $29.98 to $49.98

TUTTLE & ROCKWELL'S

Hornell, New York

SURE... there ARE places you can't wear your

SEBAC MOCS

BLACK BROWN BRONZE $10.95

Ludden Shoe Store
 Wellsville, N. Y.