Senior Interview

This week's honored Senior is Donald Eugene Price, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Price. Don was born May 27, 1946 in Wellsville and now has three brothers.

Throughout high school he has majored in business and industrial arts, his favorite subject being industrial arts.

"Don's" favorite hobbies are swimming and hunting. He prefers steak over other foods, and blue over other colors. His favorite saying is: "Forget it", while his pet peeve is "lippy" people. After high school "Don" plans to enter the U.S. Navy. To "Don" go wishes for a happy future.

FFA News

Eight FFA members attended the Agricultural Science Program at Cornell University on Tuesday, March 30. The eight boys were: Gail Burdick, Mike Baker, Ray Mead, Joe Raub, James Dunham, Larry Givens, Charles Nevol and David Leon. During the day the boys went to classes in modern agriculture, heard lectures and saw demonstrations and movies on agriculture.

Winners of the silver awards given for farm business analysis were Robert Gayhart and Stephen Baker.
