

Judith E. Schwalb Weds James Dean Fisher

Mr. and Mrs. James Dean Fisher

The marriage of Miss Judith Elaine Schwalb and James Dean Fisher was solemnized Saturday April 24, at 11 a. m., in Immaculate Conception Church, Wellsville.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Swick before an altar decorated with Easter lilies. Organist Mary Daley accompanied Leo Finn as he sang "Panis Angelicus".

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schwalb of 33 Wheeler Place, Wellsville. The groom is the son of Mrs. John Fisher of Andover and the late Mr. Fisher.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length nylon chiffon gown in traditional white. The empire bodice featured a bateau neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The chapel-length train was attached to the sides of the high-rising waist and fell over the controlled skirt. The gown was accented with Alencon lace. Her tulle veil fell from a seed pearl tiara and she carried a single white rose, a symbol of unity. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

Mrs. Lewis Mason of Irving, Tex., sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor. She was attired in an aqua gown of acetate peau. The bodice was styled with a bateau neckline and elbow-length sleeves and the sheath was accented by a full overskirt. A watteau train fell from a bow at the back. A matching Dior bow with veil and a cascade bouquet of white daisies complemented her costume.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Hennessy of Albany, Mrs. George Caterino of Opalacka, Fla., and Miss Eleanor Schwalb of Arlington, Va., all sisters of the bride. They wore turquoise peau gowns styled similarly to the matron-of-honor's, matching tiaras, and carried cascade bouquets of white daisies.

All attendants wore single strands of pearls, gifts of the bride.

John Carl Fisher of Hyattsville, Md., brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Paul Ryan of Wellsville, Gene Cornell and Donald Cornell, both of Greenwood and Donald Schwalb of Dallas, Tex.

For her daughters wedding Mrs.

Schwalb selected a light blue wool suit, blue flower hat and beige accessories. The groom's mother chose a blue taffeta dress with chiffon overskirt a flower hat and white accessories. Both wore corsages of white baby roses.

The bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. George Schwalb, wore a gray tweed suit, black accessories and a corsage of white baby roses.

A reception for 250 guests was held in the Elks Club from 1 to 4 p. m. Assisting hostesses were Sheila Hennessy, Susan Hennessy, Mary Colegrove, Linda Transki and Marilyn Finn. The buffet table was decorated with spring flowers. The white four-tiered wedding cake was ornamented with white roses and topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Out-of-town guests attended from Buffalo, Rochester, Hornell, Salamanca, Utica, Canisteo, Cuba, New York City, Washington D. C., Elizabeth, N. J., East Brady, Pa. and Andover.

For a cruise to Bermuda the bride chose a two-piece beige suit, black knit coat, beige accessories and a corsage of white daisies. Upon return the couple will reside at 48 Pleasant St., Wellsville.

Mrs. Fisher was graduated from Immaculate Conception School, Wellsville High School and State University Agricultural and Technical Institute at Alfred. She was employed for three years at Shoreham Hotel in Washington, D. C., and is a former Peace Corps trainee. She presently is employed at Serio's Store, Wellsville.

Mr. Fisher was graduated from Andover Central School and holds a Ph.G., Degree from State University of New York at Buffalo School of Pharmacy. He spent two years in the U. S. Navy as a pharmacist's mate and now is a pharmacist at Coat's Drug Store.

Prenuptial events included a kitchen shower given by Mrs. Wayne Gary; a variety shower given by Mrs. Jack Hancock and Mrs. John Devore; a personal shower given by Mrs. Paul Decker a luncheon at Long Vue, by Mrs. Francis Richardson and Mrs. Gus Rigas; couples' party for bride and groom, given by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hennessy; a bachelor party at Elks Club, given by friends of the groom, and a dinner for the bride's family, given by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Schwalb.

Appreciation

Mr. and Mrs. George McAndrew wish to thank the Andover and the Serio Fire Companies for their prompt response to a call to put out a grass fire Saturday afternoon.

Appreciation

I wish to express my appreciation for the cards, flowers, fruit and visitations sent to me while I was in the hospital. Also for the kindnesses shown by family.
