

GREENWOOD NEWS

Grace Young, Reporter

Miss Bonnie Raish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Raish of Greenwood, became the bride of Robert Studer, son of Paul Studer and the late Mrs. Studer of Wellsville, Sunday, June 13, 1965. The Rev. Roger Williams, Pastor, performed the double ring ceremony at a seven o'clock service in the Greenwood Methodist Church. Mrs. Lunette Hale, organist, played traditional wedding music. The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Richard Raish, wore a street length white lace dress with long sleeves and a shoulder length veil that fell from a tiara. She carried a white Bible covered with red roses and streamers.

Mrs. Edward Halsey, sister of the bride was matron-of-honor, wearing a yellow street length dress, pill box hat and a corsage of yellow and white carnations. Edward Halsey was best man for his brother-in-law.

Bridesmaids were Misses Diane and Nancy Hyland, nieces of the bride, wearing pink and yellow dresses with matching corsages and picture hats.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the upstairs social room at the Legion Home for 80 guests. The bride's table was decorated with white, pink and orchid streamers and centered with a three tiered wedding cake made by Mrs. Harlie Herrick. The cake was separated with pillars and topped with a miniature bride and groom in a heart frame trimmed with flowers. Guests were present from Pennsylvania, Wellsville, Jasper, Canisteo, Burns Allentown, Olean and Greenwood.

The couple spent overnight in Pennsylvania and have rented the upstairs apartment in the William Glover home. Mrs. Studer is a student at Greenwood Central School. Mr. Studer attended Wellsville Central School and is employed at the Bulk-Tainer Plant in Andover, a branch of the Genesee Tank Co.

Miss Linda Bassett, daughter of Elder and Mrs. Carol Bassett, has completed her junior year at Cleveland College at Lamoni, Iowa. She volunteered to travel with Older Youth Service Corp. Teams of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. The youth have a training session June 20 - 27, then visit church historical sights. The teams go either to Wisconsin, Illinois or Florida and serve July 1 to August 14.

Sunday, June 13, Priest John Wolf of Wilson, was the guest speaker at the 11:00 o'clock Worship Service in the local R.L.D.S. Church. Mrs. Wolf and two youths from Niagara Falls were also present. Miss Caroline Bassett was chairman for the Children's Day program at the Church School hour.

Following services a family dinner was served in the church dining room to members and guests.

Mrs. Harold Redmond, Superintendent, announced the Children's Day Program at the Methodist Church. The theme was: "His Steadfast Love Endures". The Primary Department gave recitations and songs, "In the Church", The Junior Department (girls) read responsive reading, "In the Home", also sang the anthem, "Living For Jesus". The Junior boys acted the "Good Samaritan Story", to show, "In the Community". To conclude, "Around the World", Joan Spencer and June Mullen from Junior High spoke of the outreach of the Church in Missions with two Juniors, Starla Jackson played the Prelude and Diane Smith played for the Primaries. Barbara Kirk gave the Offertory Prayer with four Juniors as ushers. Carlton Cornell gave and Invocation and Benediction.

Lynn Redmond and Wayne Warriner, Sr., will be employed at Ithaca this Summer. They will work on Weed. Control in the Agronomy Department of the Agriculture College at Cornell University.

Town Justices of Peace, Douglas

Cornell and Stanley Murray, Sr., were hosts for a Steuben County Magistrates Meeting at the Fire Hall Thursday night. Dinner was served to 35 members and guests by the Firemen's Auxiliary, followed by Roundtable Discussion.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet this Thursday, June 17th at 1:30 p. m., at the Methodist-Social Hall. Mrs. Joseph White will give the devotions. Mrs. Walter Jackson, President, will conduct a business meeting. This is the final meeting until September. Rev. Roger Williams will install the officers at the morning service next Sunday.

Mrs. Rodney Burley, President of the Woman's Division of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints reports that the women made $75 on the Rummage Sale held Thursday at the Odd Fellows Hall in Hornell. The women have been using the Study Book "A Righteous Generation" with Mrs. Rachel Holt, leader of the study several Sunday nights. Meetings are discontinued until September.

Mrs. Daniel Redmond was a Tuesday night guest of Principal and Mrs. Wesley Tennant and daughters at Falconer. Wednesday she went on to Meadville, Pa., and brought her son, Lynn home. He completed his Freshman year at Allegheny College.

Students completing a year at Alfred Ag-Tech School are Stanley Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith; Roger Williamson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Williamson; Harlan Warriner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Warriner, Sr., and Diane Woodward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Woodward.

Miss Barbara Lamphier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lamphier, returned home Saturday from the State University College at Fredonia after her junior year. She was a S.P.A. Student Patrol of her dormitory so had to stay until all students checked out.

Miss Elsie Koehler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Koehler completed her Sophomore year at the State University College at Fredonia.

Miss Donna Krusen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklyn Krusen is home from the State University College at Buffalo after her Freshman year.

Miss Marie Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Campbell arrived home Saturday from Bob Jones University at Greenville South Carolina.

Merrit Osmin moved recently into the former Fred Krusen farm home owned by Alfred Krusen. He had been staying with his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Teribury. His son-in-law, Max Allen of Wellsville moved him.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Canty of Belmont spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McDonough and her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McDonough and Carrie Sue of Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hussey and daughter, Cheryl were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Horton and daughter of Little Valley.

Mrs. Mildred Banks of Canisteo spent Wednesday with Mrs. Blanche Goodno. Mrs. Banks was a neighbor when she was helping at the home of E. M. Scribner.

Mrs. M. P. Wheeler, who is helping in the home of Mrs. Mary Cornish at Canisteo, was home Wednesday. Her sister, Mrs. William Hemker and niece of Mansfield, Pa., were dinner guests and brought a birthday cake for Mrs. Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lemonr of Lexington, Ind., came Monday and were guests several days of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Simons. They were former neighbors and residents in Greenwood.

Francis Acker worked part of the week on the farm for his brother-in-law, Lloyd Allen at Hartsville.

Mrs. Dorothy Faulkner of Ransomville and granddaughter, Miss Mary Neville of Almond, called on Miss Ellen Young and Miss Sabrey Stephens Saturday. She is a native of Greenwood, the former Dorothy Slocum.

Greenwood Central School News

The Greenwood FHA Chapter held a formal installation of next year's officers Tuesday, June 8, at the Greenwood Central School.

The opening exercises included skits of all their activities of this past school year. Among them were: Winter week-end, Christmas boxes for needy families, initiation of new members, a fashion show car wash, the district rally and state convention.

Teri June Rollins, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Clair Rollins did a military tap dance; Deborah Cook sang, "I Didn't Know The Gun Was Loaded".

The installation of the 1965-66 officers was led by Sharon Hunt who was the local and district President and State Project Chairman for the New York State Future Homemakers of America.

Debra outlined how she and her executive council have planned to work toward the National FHA goals this coming year.

Guests included members mothers, girls from grades 5 - 12.

Mrs. Shirley Cook is the FHA Advisor.

Next year's officers include Debra Teribury, President; Sandra

Greene, Vice President; Carolyn Bassett, Secretary; Joanne Hanbach, Treasurer; Jolene Cheesman Reporter; Mary Ellen Hanbach Song Leader; Pamela Higgins Parliamentarian; and Diane Smith Historian.

Sell that used article thru the classified advts.

The BIG ELMS Restaurant

Open 7 Days Per Week — 7 A. M. to 12 P. M.

FULL COURSE DINNERS DAILY

Private Dining Room For Parties

Bring The Entire Family

196 Seneca St. Hornell, N. Y.

Father Favors ties

Special gifts for any Dad are these casual summer ties... silk, shantung, knits... all styled right!

From $1.50 up

ARROW DECTON

This is the day you should remember—and it's the day Dad won't forget if you present him with this handsome Arrow Decton in his favorite collar style.

Dads come in all shapes and sizes and we have a complete collection to choose from, all calculated to please him.

Mother will be happy, too, ARROW DECTON is completely wash and wear.

TOM KINNEY

"For the Nation's Leading Brands"

30 Broadway

Hornell, N. Y.