We note there are forty students in the Andover Central School graduating class this year. Also many in our area are home from college or higher degrees of education. Congratulations are in order to these citizens as they continue to earn even higher degrees.

Some 50 Alfred-Almond Central School graduates will be leaving Monday morning, June 28th, on a five-day trip to Washington, D. C. They will be accompanied this year by Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Barron and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ryan, Jr., of Almond. Reservations have been made at the Ambassador Hotel for the group.

Due to the unexpected illness of the guest speaker, Russell G. Corrie of Kenmore, the dinner-meeting of the Allegany County Town Highways Superintendents Association, which was to be held June 21 in Moonwinks, North Cuba, has been cancelled.

Mrs. John Lever and Mrs. Mima Wentworth were among the 40 members of the Golden Age Club to enjoy a recent trip on a chartered bus to Niagara Falls.
