

Ruth Ann Padden and William F. Culbert Wed

The Andover Blessed Sacrament Church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Ruth Ann Padden and William F. Culbert at seven o'clock Saturday, June 19, 1965. White snapdragons and gadioli, were the floral decorations. Mrs. Robert Smith, organist accompanied Mrs. Bernard Burger, soloist, who sang "On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother."

The Rev. John R. Shea performed the double ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Padden of Andover and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Culbert of Scio.

Given in marriage by her brother, Edward T. Padden, the bride wore a floor-length gown made of lace and organza, featuring a slender fitted bodice of all lace, long sleeves and a sequin embroidered neckline. Lace tiers cascaded down the back of the dress. An apron effect edged in lace fashioned the front of the very bouffant skirt. The nylon tulle veil fell from a bridal headpiece made of lace and pearl drops. She wore a pearl necklace, which was a gift from the groom and carried a white Bible adorned with pink rosebuds, lillies of the valley and white satin streamers.

Mrs. John E. Joyce of Andover was the Matron-of-Honor for her sister. Her other attendants were Mrs. Gerald Padden of Randolph sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Richard Norton of Rome, sister of the groom and Mrs. Joan Morey of Wellsville.

Mrs. Joyce chose a floor-length gown of mint green organza over bridal satin styled with a lace jacket. Her headdress was a crown of matching material with circlet veils, green slippers completed her ensemble. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

The bridesmaids wore gowns identical to the worn by the Matron-of-Honor in yellow and carried bouquets of yellow carnations.

Dennis R. Culbert of Rome served as best man for his brother. Those ushering were Gerald Padden, Richard Norton and Donald Hart of Belmont.

The bride's mother chose a dress of teal blue zantrel rayon with white accessories, the groom's mother wore an ice blue satin brocade sheath with matching jacket.

and hat, with beige accessories. Each wore a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

A one o'clock buffet luncheon was served 150 guests at the Veterans of Foreign War Club in Wellsville. The bridal table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake topped pinnac and a miniature bride and groom flanked by lighted tapers in crystal candleabra. The bridal bouquets were banked around the cake. Mrs. Robert Grossman and Miss Edna
