

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Cronin

Jane Louise Joyce and Thomas E. Cronin Wed

The Andover Blessed Sacrament Church was the setting for the wedding of Miss Jane Louise Joyce and Thomas Edward Cronin at 70 A. M., Saturday, August 14, 1965.

The Rev. John R. Shea, pastor, celebrated the Nuptial Mass uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo T. Joyce, 6 Center Street and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Cronin, 17 Maple Street, Wellsville. Charles and Richard Joyce, cousins of the bride were the Aitar Boys. Mrs. James Baker and daughter, Mrs. Bernard Burger sang the Mass, accompanied by Paul Kilbane, organist. White gladioli were the flowers in the church decorations.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor length gown of white satin brocade fashioned with a scoop neckline, finger tip sleeves, a sheath skirt with a detachable chapel length train. Her silk illusion veil was caught to a crown of pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white fugi mums.

Mrs. Jack P. Bush, 17 Central Place, Wellsville, was the Matron-of-Honor for her sister. Her gown was a floor length sheath styled with an empire waistline of pink and white chiffon over taffeta, featuring a white lace fringe trim at the waistline, and long tapered sleeves. Her headdress was of matching material with pink rose petals trimmed with matching veil and carried a colonial bouquet of pink and blue carnations.

The bridesmaids were Miss Susan Bryk of Avoca, Penn., niece of the bride; Miss Shelia McKinley of Wellsville, cousin of the bride and Miss Janet Burger of Andover. They wore blue and white gowns styled identical to that worn by the Matron-of-Honor with headdresses of blue rose petals with matching veil and carried colonial bouquets of blue and pink carnations.

Miss Teresa Joyce, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. Her gown was identical to that of the bridesmaids, matching headdress and carried a basket of pink, blue and white baby mums.

William Cronin, Riverside Dr. Wellsville, served his brother as best man. The ushers were James Cronin, Wellsville, brother of the groom, Joseph Fortner of Rochester and Michael Murphy of Painted Post.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece pink brocade dress with white accessories; the groom's mother chose a two-piece metallic dress with white accessories, each wore a corsage of baby pink roses. The grandmother of the bride chose a black crepe dress with white accessories and wore a corsage of white carnations.

A reception from one until five o'clock was held at the Moose Club in Wellsville for 200 guests. The Misses Mary C. and Christine Arnault of Hornell; Miss Mary A. McKinley of Wellsville, cousins of the bride, also Miss Sharon Sibley of Wellsville were the assisting hostesses.

The bride's table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake topped with the miniature bride and groom and flanked by white candles. The attendants bouquets decorated the table.

Guests were present from Rochester, Buffalo, Perry, Hornell, East Aurora, Piffard, Lockport, Dansville, Olean, Canisteo, Avoca, Pa., Bradford, Pa., and Canada.

For the wedding trip to Ontario, Canada, and New York City, the bride's traveling costume featured an A-line skirt in cranberry dress with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

The couple are residing at 21 1/2 Bennett St., Hornell.

Mrs. Cronin graduated from Andover Central School and is employed at the Air Preheater in Wellsville. The groom graduated from Wellsville High School, served two years in the U. S. Armed Forces and is employed by the United Parcel Service in Bath.

Prenuptial events were variety showers given by Miss Shelia McKinley and Mrs. Jack Bush; Mrs. Charles Joyce. A personal shower given by the Misses Janet Burger and Janis Reil; a towel shower by Mrs. Henrietta Lee. A dinner party by the co-workers of the Air Preheater. A stag party by William Cronin and a rehearsal party at the home of the bride.
