ACS Student Chosen For Red Cross Training At Manlius Workshop

Four senior high school students left Monday, August 23, for a week's stay at Manlius School, Manlius, New York to participate in a week-long Red Cross training center there.

Chosen from their respective schools are Dwight Gertz, Alfred-Almond; Hazel Hinkle, Scio; Gail Bronson, Andover; and Charlotte Hurd, Wellsville.

Junior Red Cross teacher-sponsors throughout the county have selected the young people to represent the Allegany County Chapter of American Red Cross at the Junior Red Cross leadership development training center. The week's activities include group discussions, newspaper training, public speaking, workshops, social activities and other phases of leadership development.

The purpose of the regional meeting, to be attended by approximately 200 students; is to train young people for more effective Junior Red Cross programs in schools, as well as for future adult leadership in Red Cross activities.

NOTICE

The Allegany County Highway Department will receive sealed bids until 1:00 P. M., E.D.T., September 1, 1965, at the office of the Superintendent, Belmont, New York, on the following:

One (1) mile of pavement, 20 ft., wide paved with Hetherington and Berner Moto-Paver or equal.

Specifications for above item may be obtained at the Office of the County Superintendent of Highways, Belmont, New York.

The Allegany County Highway Department reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

FERD SHEAR, County Superintendent of Highways

Appreciation

I wish to express my appreciation for the cards, gifts, flowers and other kindnesses extended to me and my family while I was in the hospital.
