irict or consolidated school district described in this sub-paragraph (s) exceed two per centum.

(f) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this section, the city of New York and the counties therein, try first and the constitution, a combined total of two made one-half per centum.

(g) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraphs (g) and (b) of this section, the city of New York and the counties therein, in that portion of the fiscal year of such city in which occurs the date on which this subparagraphs (a) and including the date of the closing of such fiscal year, (l) an additional combined total of one-half of other percentum for city and county purposes, in excess of the limitation provided in subparagraph (f) of this section, for city and county purposes, of the district of such city as determined for the purpose of computing the limitation provided by subparagraph (f) of this section, for city and county purposes, of the different of the counties the average full valuation of taxable real estate of such city as determined for the purpose of computing the limitation provided by subparagraph (f) of this section on the amount to be raised by tax on real estate and the counties therein, for city and the counties therein, for city and the counties therein, for city and county purposes, in each fixed the action of taxable real estate of such city and county purposes, in each fixed the counties therein, for city and county purposes, in each fixed the counties therein, for city and county purposes, in each fixed the date on which this subparagraph and the counties therein, for city of the extended of the considered assessment rolls and the four reaceding rolls of xluch county city.

to contract indebtedness under section four of this article in the fiscal the date on which subparagraph (g) and (h) of this section become a part of the constitution and in each fiscal year thereafter, the average full valuation of-taxable real estate of the city of New York and the counties therein shall be determined by taking the assessed valuations of taxable real estate on the last completed assessment rolls and the two preceding rolls of such city, and applying thereto the ratio which such assessed valuation on each of such rolls bears to the full valuation, as determined by the state tax of the such assessed valuation on each of such rolls bears to the full valuation, as determined by the state tax offices or opency as the legislature shall prescribe the manner by which such (ratio) ratios shall be determined by the state tax commission or by such other state officer or agency.

Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to restrict the powers granted to the legislature by other provisions of this constitution to further restrict the powers of any county, city, town, village or school district to levy taxes on real estate.—§ 2. Resolved—(if the Assembly concur), That the foregoing amendment be referred to the first regular the pext succeeding general election of inembers of the Assembly, and and the constitution in the published for three months previous to the time of such election.

navy, air force or smy branch thereof, or in the ceast guard, or the spouse, parent or child of such elector, accompanying or being with him or her, if a qualified voter and a resident of the same election ditrict, shall be deprived of its or ditrict, shall be deprived of its or ditrict, shall be deprived of the state of the vote by the shall provide the manner in which and the time and place at which such absent electors may vote, and for the return and canvass of their votes and provided, further, that in any election district in which registration is not required to be personal, no elector who is registered and otherwise qualified to vote at an election, shall be orde prived on her removal from no election district to another election district in the same county within the thirty days next preceding the election at which he or she seeks to vote, and every such elector shall be entitled to vote at such election in the election district from which he or she has so removed.] Every citizen shall be entitled to vote at every election for all officers of the state, and of the county, city, or village for three months
next preceding an election, Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, after January first, one thousand nine hundred twenty-two, no person shall become entitled to vote by attaining majority, nor housand inselundated the such physical disability, to read and write the state of the session convening after the next succeeding general election of members of the assembly and, in conformity with section one of article nineteen of the constitution, be published for three months revolute to the time of such election.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT

NUMBER TWELVEON

CONCILERENT ENGLEDON

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NUMBER TWELVE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY

Proposing an amendment to section nine of article one of the consti-tution, in relation to the authori-zation of state lotteries for the support of education in this state

Section I. Resolved (if the Assembly concur) That subdivision one of section nine of article one of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

- I.No law shall be passed abridging the rights of the people pages ably to seemble and to petition the government, or any department thereof nor shall are divorce be government, or any department thereof, nor shall any divorce be granted otherwise than by due judicial proceedings; except as hereinafter provided, no lottery or the sale of lottery divided, provided the sale of lottery divided and present and the sale of lottery tickets in connection thereinth as may be authorized and preserving by the legislature, the net proceeds of which shall be applied exclusively to or in aid or support of, education in, this state as the legislature may prescribed by the legislature may prescribed by the legislature may prescribed by the legislature state of the sale of the

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NUMBER THIRTEEN CONCURRENT RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY

Proposing an amendment to sub-division b of section twenty-five of article six of the constitution, in relation to continued service in court of appeals of a retired judge of the court of appeals

Any such certification shall be valid for a term of two years and may be extended as provided by law for soliditional terms of two years. From the second of two years are selected as provided by law for soliditional terms of two years. From the second of two years of the second of the second of the year in which he reaches the age of seventy-six. A retired judge or justice in performing the duties of a justice of the supreme court shall be subject to assignment by the supplies division of the supreme court of the judicial department of his residence. A retired judge or justice, as the customay be, shall not be counted in determining the number of fudges of the court of oppedies or justices in a judicial district for purposes of the court of the purposes of the court of oppedies or justices in a judicial district for purposes of section as subdivision of this article, respectively.

§ 2. Resolved (if the Assembly concur), That the foregoing amendment be referred to the first regular legislative session convening after the next succeeding general election of members of the assembly, and, in conformity with section one of safelele-nineteen of the constitution, be published for three months previous to the time of such election.

**NUMBER FOURTERN**

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NUMBER FOURTEEN CONCURRENT RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY

Proposing an amendment to section one of article two of the consti-tution, in relation to qualifications for voting

one of attention to qualifications for voting

Section 1. Resolved (if the Senste concur), That section one of article two of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Every citizen of the age of twenty-one years, [who shall have been a citizen for minety days,] and an inhabitant of this state for one year next preceding an election, and for the last four months a resident of the county, city, or village and for the last fluor months a resident of the county, city, or village and for the last thirty days a resident of the city city, city, or village and for the last thirty days a resident of the election district in which he or she may offer his other vote, shall be entitled to vote at such election in the election at the state of the election in the elective by the people, and upon all questions which may be submitted to the vote of the people, provided however that no elector in the actual military service of the state, or of the United States, in the army, nay, are or hereafter may be elective by the people and upon all questions which may be submitted to the vote of the people, provided however that no elector in the actual military service of the state, or of the United States, in the army, nay, are force or any orange mercon, or in the coast guard, or the spouse, parent or child of such elector, accompany or being with him or her, if a qualified voter and a resident or the same election district, shall be deprived of his or her vote by reason of his or her there are a sufficient which registration is not required to be personal, no elector who is registered and otherwise qualified to wote an allection shall be deprived of his or her right to vote by reason of his or her right to vote by reason of his or her right to vote by reason of his or her right to vote by reason of his or her right to vote by reason of his or her right to vote wo personal, no elector who is registered and otherwise qualified to vote at an election shall be deprived of his or her right to vote by reason of his or her removal from one election district to another election district in the same country within the thirty days next preceding the election at which he or she seeks to vote, and every such such election in the election district from which he or she has so read the election in the election district from which he or she has so row with the election of the election district from which he or she has so row with the election of the election of the election of the election of the provisions, after January first, one thousand nine hundred twenty-two, no person shall become entitled to vote by attaining majority, by naturalization or otherwise, unless such person is also able, except for physical disability, to read and write English.

§ 2. Resolved (if the Senate concur). That the foregoing resolution be referred to the first regular legislative session convening after the next succeeding general election of members of the assembly and, in conformity with section one of article nineteen of the constitution, be published for three months previous to the time of such election.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NUMBER FIFTEEN CONCURRENT RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY

Proposing an amendment to section nine of article one of the consti-tution, in relation to authorizing the limited conduct of certain games of chance by religious, charitable or non-profit organi-zations of veterans, firemen and similar non-profit organizations in conformity with section one of article inneiteen of the constitution, be published for three months previous to the time of such election.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NUMBER ELEVEN CONCURRENT RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY Proposing an amendment to section one of article two of the state constitution, in relation to qualifications of voters:

Section 1. Resolved (If the Assembly concur), That subdivision be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Resolved (If the Assembly concur), That section one of article two of the state constitution, in relation to qualifications of voters:

Section 1. Resolved (If the Assembly concur), That section one of article two of the county court, judge of the court of appeals justice of the supreme court for the surrogate's court, judge of the family count, judge of the count of this article one of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Resolved (If the Assembly concur), That section one of article two of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Resolved (If the Sentence of the count of the surrogate's court, judge of the count of this article one of the count of the count teasion for a period not to exceed more than sighteen consecutive days in any ealendary year, (2) no participation in a genne by any player shall be for a sum in excess of one dollar for any one game; (3) the entire net proceeds of any game shall be exclusively devoted to the lawful purposes of such organization, item for the period of such organization, item for the period of such organization shall participate in the management or operation of any such game, and (5) no person shall receive any remuneration for participating in such management or operation. The legislature shall pass appropriate laws to effectuate the purposes of this subdivision, ensure that such games are ripidly regulated to prevent commercialized gambling, prevent participation by criminal and other undestrable shall purpose authorized such games may reside the municipality which has authorized such games may reside or evoke such authorized. Here, which is a municipality which has authorized such games. Nothing in this section shall prevent the legislature from passing laws more restrictive than any office provisions and the section of the continuation. Unless permitted by the legislature from passing laws more restrictive than any office provisions and the section of the continuity with section one of article nineteen of the constitution. Depublished for three months previous to the time of such election. NOMBER SIXTEEN NOMBER SIXTEEN OF the part of the constitution.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NUMBER SIXTEEN CONCURRENT RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY

Proposing an amendment to section four of article eighteen of the constitution, in relation to the powers of cities, town and villages to contract indebtedness under such article

Section 1. Resolved (if the Senate concur). That section four of article eighteen of the constitution be amended to read as follows:

1. To effectuate any of the purposes of this article, the legislature, may authorize any city, town or village to contract indebtedness to an amount which shall not exceed two per centum of the average two per centum of the average able real estate of such city, town or village [subject to taxation], as determined [by the last completed assessment roll and the four preceding assessment rolls of such city, town or village, for city, town or village taxes prior to the contracting of such indebtedness) in the indinger prescribed in section ten of orticle cipht of this constitution. In assessment, the power of a city.

things and indebtedness) in the ments and provided, however, that it may be excluded any such indebtedness are provided that in the such project or projects, all costs of operation maints and the interest on such indebtedness and the interest on such indebtedness and the interest on such indebtedness. All the such year for the payment of such indebtedness, and the interest on such indebtedness was contracted shall have yielded during the preceding year net revent and the interest on such indebtedness, and cost of operation, maints and the interest on such indebtedness, and cost of operation, maints and the interest on such indebtedness, and the operation of the such preceding years net revent and such amounts shall have been paid to such interest and such amounts shall have been paid and in case of loans an amount equal to such interest and such amounts whill be determined, and no such indebtedness to the purpose of determining the amount of any such indebtedness to the paid subsequent to the then current year shall, for the purpose of the purpose of the projects of the purpose of the purp interest nor shall any such law prevent recourse to an ad valorem taxon real estate to the extent that revenue derived from such other tax or taxes in any year, together with revenues from the project or projects aided by the proceeds of such indebtedness, shall become insufficient to provide fully for payment of such principal and interest in that such principal and interest in that such principal and interest in the foregoing amendment be referred to the first regular legislative session convening after the next succeeding general election of members of the samply and, in conformity with section one of article nineteen of the constitution, be published for three months previous to the time of such election.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT NUMBER SEVENTEEN CONCURRENT RESOLUTION OF THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY

Proposing an amendment to section fewr of article eighteen of the countries of the thousand or more, to exclude a proportionate amount of indebtedness in ascertaining the amount of indebtedness which may be contracted thereunder edness which may be contracted thereunder

Section 1. -Resolved (if the Sene reconcur), That section four of article eighteens are constituted by the section of section of the section of section of the section of the section of section of the sec