Miss Darlene Burley of Buffalo became the bride of Michael Hartwig of Rochester at a two o'clock service Saturday, September 4th at the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints in Greenwood. Elder Russell Reid, District RLDS Youth Director from Corfu, performed the double ring ceremony before the altar decorated by three crosses encircled with ivy, two lighted candelabra and yellow and lavender mums. Mrs. Nadine Tubbs of Buffalo was organist and Mrs. Shirley Reid of Corfu, was soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Burley of Greenwood and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Hartwig of Rochester.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown with three tiers of Peau de soie and Chantilly lace styled with a Basque bodice, long sleeves and scalloped neckline. The elbow length veil was caught to a crown of seed pearls and crystals. She carried a cascade of white carnation and ivy, centered with a white orchid. Miss Betty Burley of Greenwood, was Maid-of-Honor for her sister. Miss Carolyn Bassett, Canisteo R.F.D., cousin of the bride and Mrs. John Wolf of Wilson, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids. All wore lavender sheath floor length dresses, chiffon over taffeta with brocade taffeta empire bodice and matching headpieces. The Maid-of-Honor carried a cascade of yellow carnation with lavender streamers. The bridesmaids had pink carnations. Miss Dawn Peters was flower girl, wearing a floor length lavender dress, long sleeves, and matching headpiece of flowers. She carried a basket of pom poms. Master Danny Peters was ring-bearer, both from Greenwood.

A reception was held in the church parlors for over a 100 guests. White bells and lavender and white streamers decorated the room. Mrs. Carol Bassett, Aunt of the bride, cut the four-tiered wedding cake. Cousins, Mrs. Ricard Warriner served punch and Miss Debra Teribury served coffee and tea. Miss Sandra Greene assisted with the gifts.

The bride wore a light blue dress and accessories with white orchid corsage for a trip to Bar Harbor, Maine and the New England States.

The bride is a graduate of Greenwood Central School and attended Corning Community College. She is employed at the Sylvania Electronics System in Buffalo. Her husband graduated from Penfield High School and Graceland College, Iowa. He is a Senior at the University of Buffalo.

Guests attended from Rochester, Buffalo, Canisteo, Hornell, Wellsville, Niagara Falls, York, Pa., Elmira, Olean, Corfu, Wilson and Williamsville.
