

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Roger Shutt Photo by Wittie

The Andover Methodist Church was the setting Saturday afternoon, September 18, 1965 at 2 p. m., for the marriage of Miss Flora Jean Sherman, daughter of Mrs. Niles Sherman of 28 Rochambeau Ave., Andover and the late Niles Sherman, to Jim Roger Shutt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Caritor Shutt of Wellsville, N. Y.

The Rev. Roger Williams, pastor of the Andover Methodist Church, performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli and mums with lighted white tapers. Mrs. Ralph Bennett, organist rendered the traditional Wedding March by Lohengrin.

Escorted to the altar by her brother, LaVern Sherman, the bride was attired in a street length gown of white acetate nylon lace over taffeta. The bodice featured a scoop neckline with an illusion yoke of sheer nylon, highlighted with a tricott cummerbund and nosegay at the waist with three-quarter sleeves bound in white satin. The billowing skirt was underlined with nylon net. Her double tier elbow length nylon illusion veil, edged with lace, was caught to a tierra crown adorned with matched baby pearls and sequins. White leather shoes completed her ensemble. Her only jewelry was a double strand of pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations with removable pink carnation corsage in the center.

Mrs. Lewis Reisman of Wellsville, was Matron-of-Honor. She chose a street length gown of mint green nylon chiffon with a lace overblouse which buttoned down the back. She wore a matching green pillbox hat with a face veil and mint green shoes. A pendant necklace, a gift from the bride, completed her outfit. She carried a cascade bouquet of green carnations.

Gene Shutt of Arcade was best man for his brother. Ushers were Harold Sherman, Andover, brother of the bride and Ralph Newcomb, Knoxville, Pa.

The bride's mother wore a print dress of blue dacron polyester with white accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds. The Groom's mother was attired in a dress of blue with matching accessories and wore a yellow rosebud corsage.

The maternal grandmother, Mrs. Flora Green of Woodhull selected a blue silk dress with beige accessories.

Following the ceremony a reception for 80 guests was held at the Masonic Temple in Andover and put on by the members of the Eastern Star. The dining room was decorated with white wedding bells, pink and white crepe paper streamers and baskets of flowers. Streamers and small bells were attached to the linen clothes. The bride's table was set with white linen, centered with a four-tiered wedding cake featuring white swans and columns between the layers with white roses and bells on each tier. A miniature bride and groom were on the top tier. Mrs. Landis Kibbe made the cake. Candelabras with white tapers flanked the cake and a silver tea and coffee service with dishes of nuts and mints completed the table. Bride's punch was also served.

Hostesses were Miss Linda DeRemer, who cut the cake; Mrs. Howard C. McAndrew presided at the punch bowl; with Mrs. Lois Whitzer, aunt of the bride and Miss Jackie Whitzer, cousin of the bride, pouring tea and coffee. The bride is a graduate of Andover Central School, Class of 1960 and the groom is a graduate of the Cowanesque Valley Jr.-Sr., High School, Class of 1961 and is presently serving in the United States Army.

For a wedding trip to the Adirondack Mts., the bride chose a green and white print-dacron dress with beige accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations. They will reside in Virginia where Mr. Shutt is stationed.

Guests were present from Knoxville, Pa., Olean, Andover, Arcade, Chaffee, Wellsboro, Pa., Bergen, Wellsville Almond, Woodhull, and Grand Island.

Pre-nuptial events were a variety shower given by Mrs. Donald Smith and Mrs. Paul Briggs.
